Janesville Weekly Gazette.

TERMS PER YEAR, - - - $2,00. IN ADVANCE.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political doctrine, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary merit and in local information relating to this city and county, we shall spare no pains to make the WEEKLY GAZETTE worthy of public patronage and support.

The News.

At the present writing, McClellan is not sure of having carried a State except New Jersey, Deleware and Kentucky. Our dispatches from Albany this afternoon, confidently assure us that the great State of New York has cleaned out the arch traitor, Seymour, and that henceforth Mr. Lincoln will not be embarrassed with the opposition of himself and "friends." Next to the election of Mr. Lincoln, we hail the defeat of Seymour, as tidings of great joy that shall be to the American people. As for little Mac, he has done much better than was anticipated by most people. It is a burning shame that he got a single electoral vote. But he has done quite as well in running for the Presidency as he did in leading the Army of the Potomac.

Illinois gives twenty to twenty-five thousand Union majority and elects nine out of the fourteen congressmen, and probably eleven. In the present Congress the Union men have but five members. It will gladden the hearts of the people everywhere to know that 10,000 prisoners on each side, are soon to be exchanged.

There is a foolish rumor afloat that McClellan has sent in his resignation as Major General. He likes the pay too well.

The propeller Georgian, that has caused considerable excitement among the inhabitants of the lake cities, has been cornered at last, and her owner believes himself to be a deeply injured man.

The rebels made an attack upon a portion of Grant's line on Saturday, which cost them the loss of 200 men in killed and wounded.

The rumor that Wright, of New Jersey, just elected to Congress, was dead, is not correct.

Gold took a sudden tumble to-day of 20 cents, closing at 2.40

Let Them Go.

Honest men everywhere will rejoice to learn that Jeff. Davis' organ in Chicago, the Times is so thoroughly disgusted with the result of the people's work on Tuesday last, that it advises its friends to emigrate to the more congenial soil of Canada. In its issue of yesterday it says:

"Now that the re-election of Mr. Lincoln bids fair to give four more years of war, there are fewer reasons than ever why men who can get away should remain here longer. To stay here is to brave a conscription which must soon become universal, and to be lost in a contest whose vortex is swallowing the life, wealth and reputation of the nation. In Canada there are none of these misfortunes; there may be less liberty than there was in this country a few years since, but there is at least immunity from the officers of the conscription, from being dragged to an unwilling and useless death on the battle-field and from the sure financial ruin which in time must overtake every citizen of both sections of this unhappy country."

It is gratifying to know that such scamps as follow the lead of the Times, contemplate leaving the country for any reason whatever.

First Congressional District.

The Milwaukee Sentinel gives the following table as the result of the vote for Congressman in that District.

	Paine.	Cary.
Kenosha County	407	......
Racine County	391	......
Walworth County	2,400	......
Milwaukee County	......	3,595
Waukesha County	......	175
Totals	3,098	3,770

Majority for Cary on home vote, 672.

If the soldiers do as well for Paine as they did for Judge Potter, he will be elected.

The speech of Hon. J. E. Arnold, of this city, was published and circulated in St. Louis, just preceeding the election. —Milwaukee News.

And as a result, St. Louis gives an unprecedented "abolition!" majority, and elects Henry T. Blow to Congress.

SAWYER ELECTED.—It is quite certain that Sawyer has been elected to Congress over Bouck, in the Oshkosh district.

ESCAPE FROM THE REBELS.—The Chicago Tribune says: We last evening received a visit from Capt. J. B. Vleit, of the 31st Wisconsin, who, in company with Adjutant James M. Gough, 10th Wis., Capt. John B. Kellog, 6th Wis., Capt. Spencer, 10th Wis., and Lieut. Hatcher, 30th Ohio, escaped on the 5th of October from a lengthy captivity in Dixie, by jumping from a train of cars at Orangeburg, while in motion, on the line from Charleston to Columbus, S. C. After travelling twenty-four miles, the party arrived at Dalton, Ga. We have not now the space at command to give the many very interesting incidents attending the escapade.

Capt. Vliet says that the worst accounts of the cruelty exercised by the Southern chivalry towards their prisoners are no exaggerations. They were guarded on the train by conscripts, one of whom raised his gun as the party broke for the door, but was persuaded not to fire: the others did not attempt it—a sufficient proof that they were not particularly averse to the escapade. The whole journey of 450 miles was performed at night and on foot; the negroes appealed to for help on the way were uniformly friendly, and all seemed glad to help them—they of course avoided white men.

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, AND DEBILITY, DR. STRICKLAND'S TONIC.—We can recommend those suffering with Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, or Dyspepsia, Nervousness and Nervous Debility, to use Strickland's Tonic. It is a vegetable preparation, free from alcoholic liquors; it strengthens the whole nervous system; it creates a good appetite, and is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Nervous Debility.

For sale by Druggists generally at $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. A. Strickland, 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O.

Wisconsin Election Returns.

MILWAUKEE COUNTY.

The Sentinel says the copperheads in that city and county, have elected eight out of the nine Assemblymen and the entire county ticket. Cary for Congress, has about 700 majority in the First district, over Gen. Paine on the home vote. The Sentinel hopes the soldiers vote will elect Paine.

RACINE COUNTY.

The Racine Advocate says:

Owing to the storm last night and this morning we are unable to give the complete vote of every town. But we have received sufficient returns to make it certain that every Union candidate for a county or legislative office is elected on the home vote. The Union electoral ticket and the noble-hearted Gen. Paine, will get a handsome majority—not less than 400, in the county. We elect State Senator and all the Assemblymen (3) and shall place good Union men in every County office.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

The Milwaukee News publishes returns from nine towns in this County which indicates a majority of near 1,900 on the home vote.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.

The Madison Journal has the following:

SUMNER, Jefferson Co. Nov. 9.

After a spirited contest our cause, i. e. the cause of the Union, was triumphant yesterday in this little town. The votes cast were 74, of which number Ithamar Sloan received 46, or 18 majority, Milo Jones 47, Alanzon Pike 43, or 12 majority, John G. McMynn 46, and the Presidential electors 44, or 14 majority.

Truly yours, GUSTAV MELBERG, Town Clerk.

FORT ATKINSON, Nov. 8.

The following is the vote of Koshkonong:

Lincoln, 133 majority.
Union County ticket, 115 majority.
Pike, Union, for Assembly, 119 majority.
Jones, Union, for Senate, 114 majority.

Respectfully, D. B. CASWELL.

Major Bingham informs us that Sullivan gave Lincoln 22 majority; Cold Springs, 41 Union, and Farmington 71 Democratic.

DANE COUNTY.

This county, the Journal thinks, will give from 300 to 500 Union majority on the home vote.

COLUMBIA COUNTY.

An extra promptly issued from the Portage City Register office says:

Lincoln and the entire Union county ticket have majorities of not less than 1,000. Jonathan Bowman is elected to the Senate, and Levi W. Barden, Jesse F. Hand and Wm. Owen to the Assembly—all Union.

We copy the following figures on President and Congress, the balance of the ticket running about the same:

Portage City gives Lincoln 209, McClellan 282; Wyocena, Lincoln 129, McClellan 43; Fountain Prairie, Lincoln 130, McClellan 59; Courtland, Lincoln 214, McClellan 34; Randolph, Lincoln 136, McClellan 61; Columbus, Lincoln 311, McClellan 148; Newport, Lincoln 145, McClellan 81; Lewiston, Lincoln 49, McClellan 46.

GREEN LAKE COUNTY.

The Spectator publishes full returns as follows:

Brooklyn gives Lincoln 121 and McClellan 36. Princeton, 113 for Lincoln and 110 for McClellan. St. Marie, 49 for Lincoln and 32 for McClellan. Seneca, 23 for Lincoln and 24 for McClellan. Berlin, 129 for Lincoln and 14 for McClellan. Berlin City, 304 for Lincoln and 52 for McClellan. Mackford, 153 for Lincoln and 27 for McClellan. Markesan Village, 36 for Lincoln and 32 for McClellan. Manchester, 118 for Lincoln and 42 for McClellan. Kingston, 54 for Lincoln and 30 for McClellan. Kingston Village, 45 for Lincoln and 13 for McClellan. Marquette, 53 for Lincoln and 24 for McClellan. Dayton, 62 for Lincoln and 30 for McClellan.

BROWN COUNTY.

The Green Bay Advocate says: The severe storm prevents the receipt of full returns, but the indications are that the County has given a democratic majority of about 550.

Abrams, democrat, for Assembly, and entire democratic ticket is elected, except that of Sheriff, which is in doubt.

Friends who have traveled through the the county recently, inform us that the vote in the county will be at least 400 less than usual. This loss will be mostly to the Democratic ticket.

From all we can learn, the vote for Congressman, between Messrs. Bouck and Sawyer, will be very close and perhaps will not be decided until the district canvass.

LAFAYETTE COUNTY.

The Monroe Sentinel says:

We understand the Union men of our sister county did a good business in the way of snake killing on Tuesday. Four towns which we have heard from give the following Union majorities:

Argyle, 40; Center, 6; Gratiot, 74; Wiota, 60.

GREEN COUNTY.

The Monroe Sentinel says:

We have returns from 14 towns—all but Exeter and New Glarus—and we can estimate them sufficiently close from last year's vote to show how the majorities will probably stand. We give the majorities below, and will give the official table next week.

Adams gives McClellan 49. Albany gives Lincoln 96. Brooklyn Union 99. Cadiz, Union 6. Clarno, Democrats 53. Decatur, Union 127. Jordan, Union 56. Jefferson, Union 68. Monroe, Union 258. Mt. Pleasant, Union 90. Spring Grove, Union 105. Sylvester, Union 35. Washington, Democrats 48. York, Union 55. Exter, Union (estimated) 112. New Glarus (estimated) Democrats 10.

From the above it will be seen that the Union majority on the home vote will not be less than 947—a majority which the soldiers will increase to at least 1,400 Green county is a poor place for Copperheads.

MONROE COUNTY.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says Monroe county gives about 500 majority for Lincoln.

Coal is now accumulating at the mines in Pennsylvania, the supply being greater than the demand.

SNOW.—The snow fell to the depth of five or six inches in Prairie du chien yesterday.

HARPER FOR DECEMBER.—Leavitt & Dearborn have already laid on our table, Harper's Magazine for December.

THE only copperhead that is sure of his election to Congress from this State, is Eldridge from Fond du Lac.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.—There was a short meeting of the Council last evening, but very little business of importance was transacted. The bills for registry officers and inspectors of elections, were allowed.

THE QUOTA OF THIS DISTRICT.—The subdistricts deficient on the last call for troops in this congressional district are as follows:

Dane County.—Perry, 4; Sun Prairie, 5.

Jefferson County.—Farmington, 21; Concord, 1; Milford, 5; Watertown, 7th Ward, 9.

Columbia County.—Dekorra, 2; Portage, 8; Pacific, 1; Lewiston, 6.

It will be seen that there are only 11 delinquent sub-districts out of 111 in the district, with a deficiency of 62; while at the same time the district has a surplus of 715.

The Election in Rock County.

We give below the returns from the several towns in this County, as far as we have been able to obtain them up to the hour of going to press. We also publish the vote for Governor one year ago.

CATARRH, THROAT DISEASES

Early Stages of Consumption!

LIVER COMPLAINTS,

Diseases of Women!

And all other Complaints that Lead to Consumption,

Are treated by DR. HALE, at the

Wisconsin Throat & Lung Institute,

Myers' Block, Janesville,

by a new method, and with remedies that are eminently successful in the above class of chronic diseases.

The thinking and unbiased portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption in the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month, not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a speciality in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the efficacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House; Dewitt Davis, N. G. Keniston, D. R. Stout, F. J. Tupper Ellis Doty, job printer, J. D. Hayner, W. H. Mann, E R. Beckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Chenny, Miss Bello Shattuck, Miss N. Wiley.

The list could be extended to an indefinite length, but the above will suffice.

THE ELECTIONS.

BUFFALO, Nov. 8.—Latest returns from Maryland show Unionists elected 3 out of 5 Congressmen. Republican majority in the State is estimated at 5,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—The Press estimates the Union majority on the home vote from 6,000 to 10,000. The Age considers the result doubtful on the home vote.

The result in New Jersey is about 7,000 majority for McClellan. Two Republican and three Democratic Congressmen are elected.

The Albany Journal claims New York at least 5,000 Union majority. The Argus claims the State by 1,500 Democratic majority. The Tribune claims 7,000 Union and the Herald 5,000 majority. The World claim a McClellan majority of 2,000.

Deleware has gone for McClellan 450 majority.

It is also stated that Kentucky and Missouri has gone Democratic, though but little has been heard from the West in consequence of storms.

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—There is nothing more definite here to-night as to the result in this State. The Democrats claim it by a few hundreds, while the Unionists insist they have carried it by at least 5,000.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 10.—The majority in Pennsylvania will be 15,000 to 20,000 without the soldiers vote in the field.

WATERBURY, Ct., Nov. 10.—Hon. J. P. Elton, one of the Union electors at large, chosen Tuesday died to-day.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 10.—This State complete, gives 5,061 majority for Lincoln exclusive of the soldiers vote.

ST. PAUL, Thursday, Nov. 10.—Partial returns from eighteen counties give Union majorities in this State of 4,000. The counties heard from include all the Democratic strongholds, and after this there will be nothing but Union reports. The majority in the State will undoubtedly reach 6,000.

The Southern portion of the State has had heavy falls of snow in the last two days, but here it is clear and cool.

INDIANAPOLIS, Thursday, Nov. 10.—Election returns come in slowly. There are Union gains in nearly every county.

The majority in the State is about thirty thousand.

The radicals have carried their entire State and county ticket in St. Louis. The vote on Congressmen will stand about 5,400 for Hogan, copperhead, 4,100 for Johnson and 1,500 for Knox, both radicals The soldiers' vote will reduce Hogan's plurality, but can hardly overcome it.

Lincoln has about 2,160 majority in the county. Three precincts in the city and four in the county, including Carondolet, give 99 majority for McClellan, the balance for Lincoln.

Blow, Boyd, McClung and Loan are re-elected to Congress, all radicals, with the prospect of a gain of two or more in North Missouri.

Fletcher and the radical State ticket are elected here, and the State Convention to abolish slavery is carried. We have no doubt of the State, though the Copperheads claim heavy gains at Jefferson City and elsewhere in the interior.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 9.—McClellan carries the State by 450 majority.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. Nov. 10.—This State complete gives 5,061 majority for Lincoln, exclusive of the soldiers' vote.

CAIRO, Ill., Thursday, Nov. 10.—About three o'clock yesterday morning, a railroad bridge on the Illinois Central, over Crooked Creek, between Centralia and Odin, was burned by bushwhackers. They cut down a contiguous telegraph pole, and splitting it into kindling, fired the bridge.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The congressional delegates from this city stand, two Union, two war democrats and two regular democrats. Brook's majority is 159; Mr. Raymond's, 381; Mr. Darling's, 1082.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The World still claims the State for the Democrats by about 1,100. The Tribune claims it by 6,633, the Times by 8,930 and the Herald gives it to Lincoln by about 500.

ALBANY, Nov. 11.—Sufficient returns have been received here to indicate beyond a doubt, the success of the Union ticket in New York State by from 5,000 to 7,000 majority.

FROM CANADA.

QUEBEC, C. E., Thursday, Nov. 10—Prominent men from the Northwestern States are here urging the Canadian Government to energetic co-operation with the Americans to preserve peace on the frontier. Efficient measures on the part of the Canadian Government have been taken.

MONTREAL, C. E., Thurday, Nov. 10.—The examination of witnesses in the St. Albans raiders case proceeds slowly. It is said that no appeal can be made to the English Courts, as an act of the English Parliament limits the writ to the United Kingdom.

AMHERSTBURG, C. W., Nov. 10.—Propeller Georgian arrived here yesterday. The collector of customs searched her but found nothing suspicious, but he detains her until further orders from his Government. The owner is very indignant and threatens to claim damages.

FROM THE SOUTH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10—Late rebel papers contain a letter from Congressman Boyce, in which he explains that his object is to break down the wall of fire which separates the South from the influence of the peace North, and expresses faith that if the Lincoln policy is repudiated in the election, this could be secured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury regards the expressions by G. Stephens, Boyce and others, as intimating a surrender, and have fallen upon reflecting minds with a shock electrical as lightning.

The Montgomery Mail urges the rebel Congress to propose a convention of all the States.

The Macon Confederacy regards the discussion of the peace question as unpolitic on the part of the rebels. The anticipated attack on Wilmington is discussed by all the papers. They claim the defences are very strong, but regard the situation with anxiety. The Union prisoners formerly at Andersonville, are reported at Florence, South Carolina.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Montgomery Mail in an article advocating a convention of all the States says, in referring to the meeting of the rebel Congress on the 7th, that the weapons are now in the hands of Congress. The States can do nothing. The people can do nothing, and the President will do nothing. Congress alone has the power by its courage and wisdom to strike a blow for peace if it would re-assure the army it had better act, and if it would re-assure the heart of the whole country it had better act.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A late Savannah paper chronicles a fire in Charleston by which a large number of mechanical shops were destroyed, together with tools which cannot be replaced. A large stock of leather, small arms and cannon were also destroyed.

A Miss Johns has been arrested in Selma charged with being a Federal spy.

Ex-Senator Hammond of South Carolina, is dying.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Some of the Richmond papers comment very severely on Jeff. Davis' message, charging him with obscuring those portions of it refering to the arming of slaves and to propose interference with the press. The public debt is stated at $1,147,970,208 without including the foreign and army debt. Jeff. Davis pronounces Sherman, Grant, and Bank's all failures and declares that Atlanta and Richmond are not vital points. He says the fall of Richmond, Wilmington, Charleston, Savannah and Mobile would not conquer the Confederacy, and that the independence of the Confederacy alone will secure peace.

DETROIT, Nov. 10.—The returns from the State are not all in. Livingston county gives 400 Democratic majority; St. Clair county 187 Democratic majority; Muskegon county 250 Republican majority; Ionia county 850 Republican majority.

Driggs and Ferry are both elected to Congress. Trowbridge is probably defeated.

Sanilac county gives 263 Republican majority; Macomb county gives 109 Democratic majority; St. Joseph county 800 to 900 Republican.

The Democrats concede the State Republican by 10,000.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Nov. 11.—Returns of voting in this army among the Pennsylvania soldiers give 3,970 majority for Lincoln. Western regiments give small majorities for Lincoln. Total vote in the combined armies before Richmond and Petersburg is stated at 18,000. Majority for Lincoln 8,000. Several Pennsylvania agents were yesterday placed under arrest for having blanks with names spelled wrong. They are held to await the decision of the Secretary of War. The matter has been referred to him.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Herald says an exchange of 10,000 prisoners has been agreed upon, and the first installment of rebels left for Savannah River on Tuesday.

The story that Atlanta had been burned and Sherman was marching in the direction of Charleston, S. C., is discredited in military circles, but the New York Times Washington special has a long dispatch this morning giving the idea that Sherman was probably on his way to Savannah, Ga.

It is rumored that Gen. McClellan sent in his resignation as Major General on Tuesday night, but it has since been denied.

It is stated that Brood is defeated in the 8th Congressional District, New York. The World claims his election.

It is reported that the Pirate Tallahassee has been sunk or captured off the coast.

Gold reached 259 yesterday and the market was excited. It opened to-day at 2.52.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Post says the gunboat just built here for the Japanese is detained under protest from the British Minister, owing to the impending hostilities growing out of the demand by the governments of the United States, England, France and Holland for the opening of the Japanese inland sea.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Post contradicts the statement that there is a misunderstanding between Gens. Butler and Dix.

Gen. Wright just elected to Congress by The Democrats for the 5th New Jersey District, died this morning.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Herald which yesterday said there was an imbroglio between Generals Dix and Butler, now says there appears to be no imbroglio after all.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Courier De Etats Unis positively denies the sentiments published that an alliance defensive and offensive existed between Mexico and the Southern Confederacy. Maximilian, it declares, has never entered into any relations with the rebel government at Richmond.

The report yesterday that Gen. Wright, just elected to Congress in New Jersey, has died, is unfounded.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—It is stated that Gen. Hooker, in whose present department is included the majority of the States bordering on our northern lakes, has after investigation, become satisfied that the alarm about the propeller Georgian being fitted out for a lake cruiser is unauthorized, and that no piratical designs are entertained by Barnes and others who purchased her in Toronto.

FROM WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Commercial's Washington special says there is no war news to-day. All is quiet with Grant's army. Considerable speculation is indulged in reference to the reports of Gen. Sherman's movements, and many seem to credit the story of his abandonment of Atlanta and march toward Charleston or Savannah. Letters from his army recently received here promised something startling before long, and it is thought that this is the event referred to.

The arrangements for the release by exchange of 10,000 of our troops, prisoners in the South, are complete and but a few days are required to fully execute them. The union soldiers have been transported to a convenient point. They will all be at their homes in time to eat their thanksgiving dinners.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Tribune's Washington special says among the papers captured on the Florida is a letter from the British Admiral Hope, refering to the case of the Florida burning an American ship that had taken out British papers. He says British papers must in all cases protect the ship, and has issued orders to attack and capture any vessel hereafter guilty of the Florida's action. It is also ascertained that the U. S. mail steamer Electric Spark was destroyed because she could not be run into Wilmington.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Nov. 9.—The flag of truce asked for by the enemy was granted yesterday morning to bury the bodies of those killed in the attack Saturday night near the center. The enemy acknowledge a loss of 200 killed and wounded.

The election yesterday throughout this army passed off very quietly. Thirty-eight Pa. regiments give McClellan 1,841, and Lincoln 4,649.

FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The steamer Africa from Liverpool the 29 via. of Queenstown arrived.

HALIFAX, Nov. 9.—Muller the railway murderer is sentenced to death without hope of a reprieve.

LIVERPOOL, October 29.—Breadstuffs steady. Provisions dull. Sheridan's victory in the Valley of the Shenandoah, caused a decline in the Confederate loan.

FROM MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 10.—A fracus occurred between soldiers and Irish at Willoughby, Dakota County, 100 miles distant, on Tuesday, resulting in the death of a soldier named Arnold, whose head was beaten to a jelly. Another soldier was horribly beaten and his life is despaired of. One Irishman was dangerously stabbed in the groin.

Janesville Weekly Gazette.

TERMS PER YEAR, - - - $2,00. IN ADVANCE.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political doctrine, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary merit and in local information relating to this city and county, we shall spare no pains to make the WEEKLY GAZETTE worthy of public patronage and support.

The News.

At the present writing, McClellan is not sure of having carried a State except New Jersey, Deleware and Kentucky. Our dispatches from Albany this afternoon, confidently assure us that the great State of New York has cleaned out the arch traitor, Seymour, and that henceforth Mr. Lincoln will not be embarrassed with the opposition of himself and "friends." Next to the election of Mr. Lincoln, we hail the defeat of Seymour, as tidings of great joy that shall be to the American people. As for little Mac, he has done much better than was anticipated by most people. It is a burning shame that he got a single electoral vote. But he has done quite as well in running for the Presidency as he did in leading the Army of the Potomac.

Illinois gives twenty to twenty-five thousand Union majority and elects nine out of the fourteen congressmen, and probably eleven. In the present Congress the Union men have but five members. It will gladden the hearts of the people everywhere to know that 10,000 prisoners on each side, are soon to be exchanged.

There is a foolish rumor afloat that McClellan has sent in his resignation as Major General. He likes the pay too well.

The propeller Georgian, that has caused considerable excitement among the inhabitants of the lake cities, has been cornered at last, and her owner believes himself to be a deeply injured man.

The rebels made an attack upon a portion of Grant's line on Saturday, which cost them the loss of 200 men in killed and wounded.

The rumor that Wright, of New Jersey, just elected to Congress, was dead, is not correct.

Let Them Go.

Honest men everywhere will rejoice to learn that Jeff. Davis' organ in Chicago, the Times is so thoroughly disgusted with the result of the people's work on Tuesday last, that it advises its friends to emigrate to the more congenial soil of Canada. In its issue of yesterday it says:

"Now that the re-election of Mr. Lincoln bids fair to give four more years of war, there are fewer reasons than ever why men who can get away should remain here longer. To stay here is to brave a conscription which must soon become universal, and to be lost in a contest whose vortex is swallowing the life, wealth and reputation of the nation. In Canada there are none of these misfortunes; there may be less liberty than there was in this country a few years since, but there is at least immunity from the officers of the conscription, from being dragged to an unwilling and useless death on the battle-field and from the sure financial ruin which in time must overtake every citizen of both sections of this unhappy country."

It is gratifying to know that such scamps as follow the lead of the Times, contemplate leaving the country for any reason whatever.

First Congressional District.

The Milwaukee Sentinel gives the following table as the result of the vote for Congressman in that District.

	Paine.	Cary.
Kenosha County	407	......
Racine County	391	......
Walworth County	2,400	......
Milwaukee County	......	3,505
Waukesha County	......	175
Totals	3,098	3,770

Majority for Cary on home vote, 672.

If the soldiers do as well for Paine as they did for Judge Potter, he will be elected.

The speech of Hon. J. E. Arnold, of this city, was published and circulated in St. Louis, just proceeding the election. —Milwaukee News.

And as a result, St. Louis gives an unprecedented "abolition!" majority, and elects Henry T. Blow to Congress.

SAWYER ELECTED.—It is quite certain that Sawyer has been elected to Congress over Bouck, in the Oshkosh district.

ESCAPE FROM THE REBELS.—The Chicago Tribune says: We last evening received a visit from Capt. J. B. Vleit, of the 31st Wisconsin, who, in company with Adjutant James M. Gough, 10th Wis., Capt. John B. Kellog, 6th Wis., Capt. Spencer, 10th Wis., and Lieut. Hatcher, 30th Ohio, escaped on the 5th of October from a lengthy captivity in Dixie, by jumping from a train of cars at Orangeburg, while in motion, on the line from Charleston to Columbus, S. C. After travelling twenty-four miles, the party arrived at Dalton, Ga. We have not now the space at command to give the many very interesting incidents attending the escapade.

Capt. Vliet says that the worst accounts of the cruelty exercised by the Southern chivalry towards their prisoners are no exaggerations. They were guarded on the train by conscripts, one of whom raised his gun as the party broke for the door, but was persuaded not to fire: the others did not attempt it—a sufficient proof that they were not particularly averse to the escapade. The whole journey of 450 miles was performed at night and on foot; the negroes appealed to for help on the way were uniformly friendly, and all seemed glad to help them—they of course avoided white men.

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, AND DEBILITY, DR. STRICKLAND'S TONIC.—We can recommend those suffering with Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, or Dyspepsia, Nervousness and Nervous Debility, to use Strickland's Tonic. It is a vegetable preparation, free from alcoholic liquors; it strengthens the whole nervous system; it creates a good appetite, and is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Nervous Debility.

For sale by Druggists generally at $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. A. Strickland, 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O.

Wisconsin Election Returns.

MILWAUKEE COUNTY.

The Sentinel says the copperheads in that city and county, have elected eight out of the nine Assemblymen and the entire county ticket. Cary for Congress, has about 700 majority in the First district, over Gen. Paine on the home vote. The Sentinel hopes the soldiers vote will elect Paine.

RACINE COUNTY.

The Racine Advocate says:

Owing to the storm last night and this morning we are unable to give the complete vote of every town. But we have received sufficient returns to make it certain that every Union candidate for a county or legislative office is elected on the home vote. The Union electoral ticket and the noble-hearted Gen. Paine, will get a handsome majority—not less than 400, in the county. We elect State Senator and all the Assemblymen (3) and shall place good Union men in every County office.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

The Milwaukee News publishes returns from nine towns in this County which indicates a majority of near 1,900 on the home vote.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.

The Madison Journal has the following:

SUMNER, Jefferson Co. Nov. 9.

After a spirited contest our cause, i. e. the cause of the Union, was triumphant yesterday in this little town. The votes cast were 74, of which number Ithamar Sloan received 46, or 18 majority, Milo Jones 47, Alanzon Pike 43, or 12 majority, John G. McMynn 46, and the Presidential electors 44, or 14 majority.

Truly yours, GUSTAV MELBERG, Town Clerk.

FORT ATKINSON, Nov. 8.

The following is the vote of Koshkonong:

Lincoln, 133 majority.
Union County ticket, 115 majority.
Pike, Union, for Assembly, 110 majority.
Jones, Union, for Senate, 114 majority.

Respectfully, D. B. CASWELL.

Major Bingham informs us that Sullivan gave Lincoln 22 majority; Cold Springs, 41 Union, and Farmington 71 Democratic.

DANE COUNTY.

This county, the Journal thinks, will give from 300 to 500 Union majority on the home vote.

COLUMBIA COUNTY.

An extra promptly issued from the Portage City Register office says:

Lincoln and the entire Union county ticket have majorities of not less than 1,000. Jonathan Bowman is elected to the Senate, and Levi W. Barden, Jesse F. Hand and Wm. Owen to the Assembly—all Union.

We copy the following figures on President and Congress, the balance of the ticket running about the same:

Portage City gives Lincoln 209, McClellan 282; Wyocena, Lincoln 129, McClellan 43; Fountain Prairie, Lincoln 130, McClellan 59; Courtland, Lincoln 214, McClellan 34; Randolph, Lincoln 136, McClellan 61; Columbus, Lincoln 311, McClellan 148; Newport, Lincoln 145, McClellan 81; Lewiston, Lincoln 49, McClellan 46.

GREEN LAKE COUNTY.

The Spectator publishes full returns as follows:

Brooklyn gives Lincoln 121 and McClellan 36. Princeton, 113 for Lincoln and 110 for McClellan. St. Marie, 49 for Lincoln and 32 for McClellan. Seneca, 23 for Lincoln and 24 for McClellan. Berlin, 129 for Lincoln and 14 for McClellan. Berlin City, 304 for Lincoln and 52 for McClellan. Mackford, 153 for Lincoln and 27 for McClellan. Markesan Village, 36 for Lincoln and 32 for McClellan. Manchester, 118 for Lincoln and 42 for McClellan. Kingston, 54 for Lincoln and 30 for McClellan. Kingston Village, 45 for Lincoln and 13 for McClellan. Marquette, 53 for Lincoln and 24 for McClellan. Dayton, 62 for Lincoln and 20 for McClellan.

BROWN COUNTY.

The Green Bay Advocate says: The severe storm prevents the receipt of full returns, but the indications are that the County has given a democratic majority of about 550.

Abrams, democrat, for Assembly, and entire democratic ticket is elected, except that of Sheriff, which is in doubt.

Friends who have traveled through the county recently, inform us that the vote in the county will be at least 400 less than usual. This loss will be mostly to the Democratic ticket.

From all we can learn, the vote for Congressman, between Messrs. Bouck and Sawyer, will be very close and perhaps will not be decided until the district canvass.

LAFAYETTE COUNTY.

The Monroe Sentinel says:

We understand the Union men of our sister county did a good business in the way of snake killing on Tuesday. Four towns which we have heard from give the following Union majorities:

Argyle, 40; Center, 6; Gratiot, 74; Wiota, 60.

GREEN COUNTY.

The Monroe Sentinel says:

We have returns from 14 towns—all but Exeter and New Glarus—and we can estimate them sufficiently close from last year's vote to show how the majorities will probably stand. We give the majorities below, and will give the official table next week.

Adams gives McClellan 49. Albany gives Lincoln 96. Brooklyn Union 99. Cadiz, Union 6. Clarno, Democrats 53. Decatur, Union 127. Jordan, Union 56. Jefferson, Union 68. Monroe, Union 258. Mt. Pleasant, Union 90. Spring Grove, Union 105. Sylvester, Union 35. Washington, Democrats 48. York, Union 55. Exter, Union (estimated) 112. New Glarus (estimated) Democrats 10.

From the above it will be seen that the Union majority on the home vote will not be less than 947—a majority which the soldiers will increase to at least 1,400. Green county is a poor place for Copperheads.

MONROE COUNTY.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says Monroe county gives about 500 majority for Lincoln.

Coal is now accumulating at the mines in Pennsylvania, the supply being greater than the demand.

SNOW.—The snow fell to the depth of five or six inches in Prairie du chien yesterday.

HARPER FOR DECEMBER.—Leavitt & Dearborn have already laid on our table, Harper's Magazine for December.

THE only copperhead that is sure of his election to Congress from this State, is Eldridge from Fond du Lac.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.—There was a short meeting of the Council last evening, but very little business of importance was transacted. The bills for registry officers and inspectors of elections, were allowed.

THE QUOTA OF THIS DISTRICT.—The sub-districts deficient on the last call for troops in this congressional district are as follows:

Dane County.—Perry, 4; Sun Prairie, 5.

Jefferson County.—Farmington, 21; Concord, 1; Milford, 5; Watertown, 7th Ward, 9.

Columbia County.—Dekorra, 2; Portage, 8; Pacific, 1; Lewiston, 6.

It will be seen that there are only 11 delinquent sub-districts out of 111 in the district, with a deficiency of 62; while at the same time the district has a surplus of 715.

The Election in Rock County.

We give below the returns from the several towns in this County, as far as we have been able to obtain them up to the hour of going to press. We also publish the vote for Governor one year ago.

DRESSMAKING.—Miss A. M. Grout would announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity, that she has taken rooms at Mr. Matteson's on Main street, a few doors below the American House, where she is prepared to do Dress and Cloak making, in a manner that cannot fail to please the most fastidious. Mrs. E. G. Tilton's new and superior plan for cutting dresses used, and instructions given in the same. A trial is solicited. CATARRH, THROAT DISEASES!

LIVER COMPLAINTS,

Diseases of Women!

And all other Complaints that Lead to Consumption,

Are treated by DR. HALE, at the

Wisconsin Throat & Lung Institute,

Myers' Block, Janesville,

by a new method, and with remedies that are eminently successful in the above class of chronic diseases.

The thinking and unbiased portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption in the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month, not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a speciality in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the efficacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House; Dewitt Davis, N. G. Remington, D. R. Stout, F. J. Tupper, Ellis Doty, Job printer, J. D. Hayner, W. H. Mann, E. R. Beckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Cheney, Miss Belle Shattuck, Miss N. Wiley.

The list could be extended to an indefinite length, but the above will suffice.

THE ELECTIONS.

BUFFALO, Nov. 8.—Latest returns from Maryland show Unionists elected 3 out of 5 Congressmen. Republican majority in the State is estimated at 5,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—The Press estimates the Union majority on the home vote from 6,000 to 10,000. The Age considers the result doubtful on the home vote.

The result in New Jersey is about 7,000 majority for McClellan. Two Republican and three Democratic Congressmen are elected.

The Albany Journal claims New York at least 5,000 Union majority. The Argus claims the State by 1,500 Democratic majority. The Tribune claims 7,000 Union and the Herald 5,000 majority. The World claim a McClellan majority of 2,000.

Deleware has gone for McClellan 450 majority.

It is also stated that Kentucky and Missouri has gone Democratic, though but little has been heard from the West in consequence of storms.

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—There is nothing more definite here to-night as to the result in this State. The Democrats claim it by a few hundreds, while the Unionists insist they have carried it by at least 5,000.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 10.—The majority in Pennsylvania will be 15,000 to 20,000 without the soldiers vote in the field.

WATERBURY, Ct., Nov. 10.—Hon. J. P. Elton, one of the Union electors at large, chosen Tuesday died to-day.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 10.—This State complete, gives 5,061 majority for Lincoln exclusive of the soldiers vote.

ST. PAUL, Thursday, Nov. 10.—Partial returns from eighteen counties give Union majorities in this State of 4,000. The counties heard from include all the Democratic strongholds, and after this there will be nothing but Union reports. The majority in the State will undoubtedly reach 6,000.

The Southern portion of the State has had heavy falls of snow in the last two days, but here it is clear and cool.

INDIANAPOLIS, Thursday, Nov. 10.—Election returns come in slowly. There are Union gains in nearly every county.

The majority in the State is about thirty thousand.

The radicals have carried their entire State and county ticket in St. Louis. The vote on Congressmen will stand about 5,400 for Hogan, copperhead, 4,100 for Johnson and 1,500 for Knox, both radicals The soldiers' vote will reduce Hogan's plurality, but can hardly overcome it.

Lincoln has about 2,100 majority in the county. Three precincts in the city and four in the county, including Carondolet, give 99 majority for McClellan, the balance for Lincoln.

Blow, Boyd, McClung and Loan are re-elected to Congress, all radicals, with the prospect of a gain of two or more in North Missouri.

Fletcher and the radical State ticket are elected here, and the State Convention to abolish slavery is carried. We have no doubt of the State, though the Copperheads claim heavy gains at Jefferson City and elsewhere in the interior.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 9.—McClellan carries the State by 450 majority.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. Nov. 10.—This State complete gives 5,061 majority for Lincoln, exclusive of the soldiers' vote.

CAIRO, Ill., Thursday, Nov. 10.—About three o'clock yesterday morning, a railroad bridge on the Illinois Central, over Crooked Creek, between Centralia and Odin, was burned by bushwhackers. They cut down a contiguous telegraph pole, and splitting it into kindling, fired the bridge.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The congressional delegates from this city stand, two Union, two war democrats and two regular democrats. Brook's majority is 159; Mr. Raymond's, 381; Mr. Darling's, 1082.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The World still claims the State for the Democrats by about 1,100. The Tribune claims it by 5,633; the Times by 8,920 and the Herald gives it to Lincoln by about 500.

ALBANY, Nov. 11.—Sufficient returns have been received here to indicate beyond a doubt, the success of the Union ticket in New York State by from 5,000 to 7,000 majority.

FROM CANADA.

QUEBEC, C. E., Thursday, Nov. 10—Prominent men from the Northwestern States are here urging the Canadian Government to energetic co-operation with the Americans to preserve peace on the frontier. Efficient measures on the part of the Canadian Government have been taken.

MONTREAL, C. E., Thurday, Nov. 10.—The examination of witnesses in the St. Albans raiders case proceeds slowly. It is said that no appeal can be made to the English Courts, as an act of the English Parliament limits the writ to the United Kingdom.

AMHERSTBURG, C. W., Nov. 10.—Propeller Georgian arrived here yesterday. The collector of customs searched her but found nothing suspicious, but he detains her until further orders from his Government. The owner is very indignant and threatens to claim damages.

FROM THE SOUTH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10—Late rebel papers contain a letter from Congressman Boyce, in which he explains that his object is to break down the wall of fire which separates the South from the influence of the peace North, and expresses faith that if the Lincoln policy is repudiated in the election, this could be secured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury regards the expressions by G. Stephens, Boyce and others, as intimating a surrender, and have fallen upon reflecting minds with a shock electrical as lightning.

The Montgomery Mail urges the rebel Congress to propose a convention of all the States.

The Macon Confederacy regards the discussion of the peace question as unpolitic on the part of the rebels. The anticipated attack on Wilmington is discussed by all the papers. They claim the defences are very strong, but regard the situation with anxiety. The Union prisoners formerly at Andersonville, are reported at Florence, South Carolina.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Montgomery Mail in an article advocating a convention of all the States says, in referring to the meeting of the rebel Congress on the 7th, that the weapons are now in the hands of Congress. The States can do nothing. The people can do nothing, and the President will do nothing. Congress alone has the power by its courage and wisdom to strike a blow for peace if it would re-assure the army it had better act, and if it would re-assure the heart of the whole country it had better act.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A late Savannah paper chronicles a fire in Charleston by which a large number of mechanical shops were destroyed, together with tools which cannot be replaced. A large stock of leather, small arms and cannon were also destroyed.

A Miss Johns has been arrested in Selma charged with being a Federal spy.

Ex-Senator Hammond of South Carolina, is dying.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Some of the Richmond papers comment very severely on Jeff. Davis' message, charging him with obscuring those portions of it refering to the arming of slaves and to propose interference with the press. The public debt is stated at $1,147,970,208 without including the foreign and army debt. Jeff. Davis pronounces Sherman, Grant, and Bank's all failures and declares that Atlanta and Richmond are not vital points. He says the fall of Richmond, Wilmington, Charleston, Savannah and Mobile would not conquer the Confederacy, and that the independence of the Confederacy alone will secure peace.

DETROIT, Nov. 10.—The returns from the State are not all in. Livingston county gives 400 Democratic majority; St. Clair county 187 Democratic majority; Muskegon county 250 Republican majority; Ionia county 856 Republican majority.

Driggs and Ferry are both elected to Congress. Trowbridge is probably defeated.

Sanilac county gives 263 Republican majority; Macomb county gives 100 Democratic majority; St. Joseph county 800 to 900 Republican.

The Democrats concede the State Republican by 10,000.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Nov. 11.—Returns of voting in this army among the Pennsylvania soldiers give 3,970 majority for Lincoln. Western regiments give small majorities for Lincoln. Total vote in the combined armies before Richmond and Petersburg is stated at 18,000. Majority for Lincoln 8,000. Several Pennsylvania agents were yesterday placed under arrest for having blanks with names spelled wrong. They are held to await the decision of the Secretary of War. The matter has been referred to him.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Herald says an exchange of 10,000 prisoners has been agreed upon, and the first installment of rebels left for Savannah River on Tuesday.

The story that Atlanta had been burned and Sherman was marching in the direction of Charleston, S. C., is discredited in military circles, but the New York Times Washington special has a long dispatch this morning giving the idea that Sherman was probably on his way to Savannah, Ga.

It is rumored that Gen. McClellan sent in his resignation as Major General on Tuesday night, but it has since been denied.

It is stated that Brood is defeated in the 8th Congressional District, New York. The World claims his election.

It is reported that the Pirate Tallahassee has been sunk or captured off the coast.

Gold reached 259 yesterday and the market was excited. It opened to-day at 2.52.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Post says the gunboat just built here for the Japanese is detained under protest from the British Minister, owing to the impending hostilities growing out of the demand by the governmets of the United States, England, France and Holland for the opening of the Japanese inland sea.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Post contradicts the statement that there is a misunderstanding between Gens. Butler and Dix.

Gen. Wright just elected to Congress by The Democrats for the 5th New Jersery District, died this morning.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Herald which yesterday said there was an imbroglio between Generals Dix and Butler, now says there appears to be no imbroglio after all.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Courier Des Etats Unis positively denies the sentiments published that an alliance defensive and offensive existed between Mexico and the Southern Confederacy. Maximilian, it declares, has never entered into any relations with the rebel government at Richmond.

The report yesterday that Gen. Wright, just elected to Congress in New Jersey, has died, is unfounded.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—It is stated that Gen. Hooker, in whose present department is included the majority of the States bordering on our northern lakes, has after investigation, become satisfied that the alarm about the propeller Georgian being fitted out for a lake cruiser is unauthorized, and that no piratical designs are entertained by Barnes and others who purchased her in Toronto.

FROM WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Commercial's Washington special says there is no war news to-day. All is quiet with Grant's army. Considerable speculation is indulged in reference to the reports of Gen. Sherman's movements, and many seem to credit the story of his abandonment of Atlanta and march toward Charleston or Savannah. Letters from his army recently received here promised something startling before long, and it is thought that this is the event referred to.

The arrangements for the release by exchange of 10,000 of our troops, prisoners in the South, are complete and but a few days are required to fully execute them. The union soldiers have been transported to a convenient point. They will all be at their homes in time to eat their thanksgiving dinners.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Tribune's Washington special says among the papers captured on the Florida is a letter from the British Admiral Hope, refering to the case of the Florida burning an American ship that had taken out British papers. He says British papers must in all cases protect the ship, and has issued orders to attack and capture any vessel hereafter guilty of the Florida's action. It is also ascertained that the U. S. mail steamer Electric Spark was destroyed because she could not be run into Wilmington.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Nov. 9.—The flag of truce asked for by the enemy was granted yesterday morning to bury the bodies of those killed in the attack Saturday night near the center. The enemy acknowledge a loss of 200 killed and wounded.

The election yesterday throughout this army passed off very quietly. Thirty-eight Pa. regiments give McClellan 1,841, and Lincoln 4,649.

FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The steamer Africa from Liverpool the 29 via. of Queenstown arrived.

HALIFAX, Nov. 9.—Muller the railway murderer is sentenced to death without hope of a reprieve.

LIVERPOOL, October 29.—Breadstuffs steady. Provisions dull. Sheridan's victory in the Valley of the Shenandoah, caused a decline in the Confederate loan.

FROM MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 10.—A fracus occurred between soldiers and Irish at Willoughby, Dakota County, 100 miles distant, on Tuesday, resulting in the death of a soldier named Arnold, whose head was beaten to a jelly. Another soldier was horribly beaten and his life is despaired of. One Irishman was dangerously stabbed in the groin.

Phillips and Lincoln.

Henry Ward Beecher, at the close of his Sabbath exercises, in drawing the portraits of the two Presidential candidates, thus contrasts Phillips and Lincoln:

"I have read with considerable attention the speech made by Mr. Phillips, at the Cooper Institute, a few evenings since. The criticisms which he made upon Mr. Lincoln do not demand at my hands any minute dissection. I have only to say that Mr. Phillips and Mr. Lincoln are counterparts, and need each other. Mr. Phillips avowedly is a reformer, and therefore is an agitator. Mr. Lincoln is by nature and practice an administrator and an organizer. It is impossible but that these two men should in some respects stand in critical antagonism of each other. And Mr. Phillips goes before to prepare the way. He raises higher and higher at every step the great moral standards; and he finds fault with the Administration that he may bring it higher and higher. I am glad he made that speech. I regard him as I do anchors in Western rivers. When the steamer runs upon a shallow place, they set jacks under her quarters, and take an anchor and carry it far down the stream, and couple it to the capstan, and then haul the boat up to the anchor.

Mr. Phillips is another; and he is far ahead of any possible Administration at present; but he hopes by turning the capstan to bring the Administration up to his ground by and-by. You know that God left the Hittites and the Jebusites and the Amorites in the mountains as thorns to make the children of Israel faithful to their worship; and God leaves in our Canaan some thorns to spur men up to their duty. And I am glad Mr. Phillips criticised Mr. Lincoln. Let him criticise him again. Mr. Lincoln can bear it. It will not hurt him. Neither will it hurt Mr. Phillips. I do not think that any speech that he can make will injure his reputation! The ablest speaker on the continent; a man of the profoundest moral convictions; a man that has been true to his ideas at the expense of his ambition; a man who had the prospect of rising to the highest honors that a nation could give, but who, because he loves justice more than honors, stood in a minority. hissed, hated, mobbed, that he might be a witness of liberty, a John Baptist in the wilderness, clothed with camel's hair, eating locusts and wild honey, and preaching repentance to a guilty nation—such is he and because he has adhered to his convictions of liberty to the uttermost, and with constant testimony he is without comeliness in the eyes of the people, and is made of no reputation. And I honor him, and admire him, and love him. I do not always follow him; for I, too, am free, and have a judgment that I must exercise. But I do believe that Mr. Philips, while he may seem severe in his criticisms on Mr. Lincoln, is severe only that he may be kind to patriotism, to country. And I think that Mr. Lincoln will do well to take heed to his criticisms, and to accept such men as he is: not blindly to follow them; not to take everything that they say as gospel; but as the natural quickeners of men like himself. For these extreme men—those men that are administrators and organizers, and that go only as fast as they can take the people with them, and those men that are reformers and agitators, and that always go ahead of the people—are the natural counterparts and helps of each other."

What Early's Soldiers Say.

REBEL LETTERS CAPTURED AT CEDAR CREEK.

A correspondent of the Boston Traveller gives the following extracts from rebel letters captured at the battle of Cedar Creek by Sheridan's troops. Some of these letters were written the day before the great battle, but the rebels had no time to send them away:

A rebel major says:

"We have been getting thrashed in the Valley considerably lately; it reminds me of our old times in Mississppi. I think I stand it better than the rest, as being more used to it.

"We have plucked up courage again, however, and old Jubal intends, I believe, to attack them to-morrow at daybreak.

"I am only fearful of the result, for they outnumber us considerably, and are flushed with success, besides being fortified.

A rebel chaplain, reviewing the campaign in the Valley up to that time says:

"Our losses in men have been comparatively small, but we have about thirty-six cannon less than we entered the campaign with, and about forty wagons less. We are just on the point of trying a flank movement on the Yankees, which will either retrieve the fallen glory of the army of the Valley, or blot it out forever. God grant that the latter may not happen, but I must confess that I shall mount my horse this evening with many forebodings of success.

"It seems to me that in his despair, Early is about to hurl his army (already more than 'shaky') against a much larger force of the enemy (and they flushed with victory) to make a name or lose his army.

"The people of the Valley are much incensed against Early, their constant answer, when asked the news, is: "O nothing, except that old Early has been trading cannons to the Yankees for whiskey." It is true that the General does drink sometimes, but I have never seen him under the influence of liquor, and I have never seen any one who was willing to say that he had ever seen him in that condition."

The following extract from a letter of a private soldier to his mother, exhibits a similar feeling of distrust:

"I judge that we move to attack the enemy in the morning at daylight. From the disparity of numbers in the two armies, and from the fact that the enemy occupy a strong and entrenched position, I think the result will be most disastrous to us. We have seen enough of the superiority of the enemy's cavalry to know that they can turn a repulse into defeat, and a defeat into a rout.

"I have no confidence in our leaders, and since the Fisher's Hill affair almost as little in our men. I can not see the reason we should risk another offensive battle with such fearful odds. I go into this battle with the worst forebodings. God grant they may not come true. If we succeed it will be almost miraculous. For myself I shall go into it perfectly content, willing to be ignorant of the result and certain it will be all for the best."

MR. VERNER, the proprietor of the Zoological Gardens at Stuttgardt, was lately seized by one of his lions, and bitten and dragged about the cage. The lion, getting alarmed by the voice of his master, at length let go his hold. Mr. Verner, although bleeding profusely from the wounds he had received, immediately inflicted severe chastisement on the unruly beast.

LOSSES IN THE 19TH REGIMENT.

Surgeon's Report of the Casualities of the 19th Regt. Wis. Vol. Infantry in the fight near Fair Oaks, Va., on the afternoon of the 27th ult.

The first and second brigades in advance failed to charge on the enemy's works, and the third brigade, which contains the 19th regiment, was ordered to take their place, which it did with the utmost bravery and valor. They went into the fight full six hundred strong, and came out with about three hundred. The 19th regiment went into the fight with one hundred and seventy-five, and came out with thirty. The brigade after marching about fifteen miles without resting, charged upon the enemy's works across an open field three-fourths of a mile wide, under the most withering fire from the rebel guns. Lieut. Colonel Strong, in command, is probably killed. The following is a list of casualities.

Lieut. Col. R. M. Strong, wounded and missing.

ONLY TIGHT.—"How flushed, how weak he is! What is the matter with him?"

"Only tight!"

"Tight?"

"Yes, intoxicated."

"Only tight!" Man's best and greatest gift, his intellect, degraded—the only power that raises him above the brute creation, trodden under foot of a debasing appetite.

"Only tight!" The mother stands with pale and tear-dimmed eye to see her only son's disgrace, and in her fancy pictures the bitter woes of which this is the foreshawdowing.

"Only tight!" The gentle sister, whose strongest love through life, has been given to her handsome, talented brother, shrinks with disgust and contempt from his embraces, and brushes away the hot impure kiss he printed upon her cheek.

"Only tight!" And his young bride steps to meet him and checks the welcome on her lips, to gaze in terror on the reeling form and flushed face of him who was the "god of her idolatry."

"Only tight!" And the father's face grows dark and sad, as, with a bitter sigh, he stoops over the sleeping face of his first born.

He has wrought sorrow to all their affectionate hearts; he has opened the door to a fatal indulgence; he has brought himself down to a level with the brutes; he has tasted, exciting the appetite to crave the poisonous draught again; he has fallen from noble manhood to idiocy; brought grief to his mother, distrust to his sister, shame to his wife, disgrace to his brother and bowed his father's head in sorrow; but blame him not; for he is "only tight."

It is stated that the large numbers of captures of blockade runners off Wilmington is owing to a new method which has been inaugurated by the new commander of the North Atlantic blockading squadron, which thus far seems to work well. What the method is Admiral Porter keeps to himself: but the plan has the desired effect.

A HOG escaped from his owner at Pittsfield, Mass., in June. and has since been running wild. and lives in a swamp, and digs potatoes and kills sheep for a living. He has killed four sheep in a single day, and five dollars is offered for his capture.

THE importance of a comma was well illustrated by a return, received by the parish authorites of a Christian District, from their Chief Constable. The document announced the dismissal of a police officer, "for attempting to marry his wife, being alive."

THE CANADIAN CONFEDERATION,

The London Times' Report of the Object and Aims of the Movement--Annexation to the Union to be prevented at All Hazards,

[Correspondence of the London Times.]

QUEBEC, Oct. 2.

The inveterate jealousy of England entertained in the Northern States of America, the progress and probable results of the civil war, together with the insolent threats of American statesmen and journalists that the conquest or annexation of Canada will soon be attempted, in retaliation for real or supposed injuries on the part of Great Britain, or simply as a counterpoise for the loss of the Southern States, have naturally excited the attention, if not the alarm, of the Canadians. It is not the first time that they have asked themselves the question whether they were thoroughly loyal to the British crown, or whether, all things considered, it would be to their advantage either to declare their independence or seek peaceable incorporation with the great republic on their border; but it is the first time they have answered it with emphatic unanimity, and that all classes have come to the conclusion that their liberty, prosperity and happiness will be best secured by the continuance of their connection with Great Britain; that if this connection should unfortunately be severed, their duty would be to establish their independence in union, if possible, with Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward's Island and Newfoundland; and that under no circumstances short of absolute subjugation, they would consent to incorporation with the Federal Republic.

During a journey of upwards of twelve hundred miles through the towns and cities of Upper and Lower Canada I have made it my business to converse on this subject with all descriptions of people. I have interchanged ideas with farmers and mechanics, with clerks and shopkeepers, with hack drivers and boatmen, with merchants, lawyers and physicians; with members of the Legislature of every party; with actual or former members of the Government; with French Canadians, and with Canadians of Anglo-Saxon or Irish descent, and with new comers of all classes. In all this intercourse I did not meet with one person, however prejudiced or ignorant he might be on other matters, who did not estimate the British connection at its full value, and express repugnance at the idea of annexation to the Federal States. There was a time not very remote when a different feeling prevailed in Upper Canada; but the teachers of the American civil war have wrought a change, and produced throughout that province an attachment to the old flag which may be equalled but cannot be excelled in England or Scotland. In the Lower Province the loyalty to Great Britain is not so fervent; but if the French fall short of the Anglo-Canadians in this respect, they entertain towards the "Yankees"—or, as they sometimes call them, the "Bostonais"— a far greater aversion than is felt or expressed by any portion of the English-speaking population. If they love England little, they hate Federal America much, and are fully aware of and resolved to preserve the benefits of British protection.

The people of the mother country will be better enabled to understand the genuineness of the loyalty of these noble provinces, and how the diverse interests of the several races who inhabit them all converge into this one sentiment, if they will call to mind the leading incidents of Canadian history, and separate into its constituent parts the actual body of the population. For this purpose it will not be so satisfactory to divide the Canadians into persons of French, English, Scottish, Irish and German descent, as into the great social and political sections: First, of French Canadians; second, of united empire, loyalists and British Canadians; and third, of recent emigrants and their descendants. Every Canadian falls under one or the other of these divisions, and it should appear that for solid reasons of their own, independently of those entertained by others, each of these elementary parts of Canadian nationality clings to the British crown as the surest guaranty of its liberty and advancement, it may be accepted as a fact that Canadian loyalty is not a thing of light account, and that federal America would enter upon a very dangerous career if it attacked such a people, supported as they would be, in case of emergency, by the purse and strength of the British empire.

The loyalty of the Canadians being conceded, the British government and people have a right to ask how it is that in this time of peril to the American continent, when the Federal States swarm with soldiers that are to be counted by the hundred thousand, and when there is at least a possibility that Great Britain may be dragged into a quarrel with the Federal Government, the Canadians have done so little for their own defense, and why they have not at this moment, including volunteers and militia, an available force of 80,000 or 100,000 men? The little State of Maine, their next door neighbor, has furnished upwards of 40,000 soldiers to the armies of Mr. Lincoln, and Canada, with a population five times that of Maine, and with a militia force amounting on paper to upwards of 456,000 able-bodied men, finds it difficult to raise 20,000 volunteers, and takes no effectual steps to call out even a tithe, of its militia, or to make that body a reality instead of a sham. What are the reasons of this apathy? Is it that Canada has been so long accustomed to rely upon the military and naval strength of Great Britian that she has not acquired the art of walking without crutches? Does she imagine that it is always to be her happy lot to be supported by the power of the greatest nation in the world, without taking any share of the burden of self-defense either in men or in money? An indignant denial is always given by the Canadians to these questions. They assert that in the hour of danger they have never been found wanting in their duty or slack in their exertions; that in the war of 1812 they did noble service against the "Yankees;" that in the affair of the Trent they felt keenly the insult to the British flag that they would have accepted all the consequences of a war with America for the vindication of British honor, and would have raised a quarter of a million of men, or double the number, if necessary, to repel any invasion that in such a war the Americans would have hurled either against the Upper or the Lower Province. They also insist that if war against Great Britian were to arise out of the present struggle between North and South, there would be a levee en masse of whole population to act in concert with any British force that might be sent to direct the defenses of the colony.

These assertions are doubtless true. No one can be many days among the Canadians without feeling that they are a brave people, with as much fight in them as the Americans, either of the North or the South, and that in the hour of conflict they would do their whole duty to their old and their new country without flinching, and without the inducement of bribe or bounty money, or any other than pure love of the cause. But the mistake which the Canadians have made, and in which they still appear to be nursing themselves, is that war is improbable and that the Americans are likely to have too much work on their hands in cutting each other's throats, during the next dozen or twenty years, to have either men or time to spare for the wicked invasion of a colony that has done them no injury, and that sincerely desires to be at peace with them and with all mankind. They do not take into account that the Americans are not a reasonable people toward great Britain, that they believe the "old country" to be effete and decrepid, and so rapidly tottering to its fall as to need only a blow from America to leave the throne of the world vacant, without any competitor but the United States to step into the sovereignty of civilization, and dictate the policy of Christendom.

"Why," they argue, "should we raise and maintain a large force to guard against an imaginary danger? We are a sparsely distributed and poor people. We have an immense line of frontier, which it would be impossible for us to garrison at all points, so as to defeat and hold an audacious enemy, if he suddenly attacked us. Besides the raising of such a force, if we were able to afford the cost, either in men or money, would be a standing menace to a quarrelsome neighbor, and challenge the aggression which we would rather avoid. Moreover, the very example of the Americans, shows us what we could do if our blood were up. They had but a small army when the civil war commenced. Now they have a very large one. We also, under the pressure of danger, and stirred by the feelings of patriotism, would sing the tocsin and carry the fiery cross through our towns and villages if the Yankees attacked us, and in a few weeks got together an army of volunteers sufficient to cope with any amount of invaders that could be driven against us. Nor would Great Britain abandon us in any such contest. Our fame is the fame of the mother country. Our security is the security of England. We are, to all intents and purposes, one people with the people at home. and if the imperial government were in such an emergency to forsake us, the sun of British glory would set forever, and England would descend, by her own act, into the rank of a third rate Power, inviting by her pusillanimity the aggression which she would have shown herself unable or unwilling to repel.

It is in this manner that Canadians, both in the Upper and Lower provinces are accustomed to speak, though it must be admitted that a change has lately come over the minds of their leading politicians, and that a feeling of misgiving has been engendered among all classes as to the worldly wisdom of such views. They are venerable and not to be disputed axioms, which declare that Heaven helps those who help themselves, and that the best way to preserve peace is to be strong enough to compel your enemy to keep it, and the events of the last few years on the American side of the St. Lawrence are fast teaching the Canadians the impolicy of remaining quiescent and apathetic while the shock of war is sounding so close upon their borders, and while an unscrupulous and greedy people openly assert that sooner or later, they will extend their frontiers to the North Pole, and expel every vestige of a European government from the American continent. What the Canadians have done and propose to do under the impulse of this growing sentiment, and how far they are ready to yield to the not unnatural demand of the British government that they should show their faith by their works, and their loyalty of spirit by their chivalry of action must be reserved for a future communication.

WHAT YOUNG PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW.—The best inheritance that parents can give their children, is the ability to help and take care of themselves. This is better than a hundred thousand dollars apiece. In any trouble or difficulty, they will have two excellent servants ready, in the shape of two hands. Those who can do nothing and have to be waited on, are helpless and easily disheartened at the misfortunes of life. Those who are active and hardy, meet troubles with cheerful face and easily surmount them. Let young people, therefore, learn to do as many useful things as possible.

Every one should know how, sooner or later,

1. To dress himself, black his own boots, cut his brother's hair, wind his watch, sew on a button, make a bed, and keep the clothes in order.
2. To harness a horse, grease a wagon, and drive a team.
3. To carve and wait on a table.
4. To milk the cows, shear the sheep, and dress a veal or mutton.
5. To reckon money and keep accounts correctly, and according to good book keeping rules.
6. To write a neat, appropriate, briefly expressed business letter, in a good hand, fold and subscribe it properly, and write contracts.
7. To plow, sow grain and grass, drive a mowing machine, build a neat stack, and pitch hay.
8. To put up a package, build a fire, whitewash a wall, mend broken tools, and regulate a clock:

Every girl should know how:

1. To sew and knit.
2. To mend clothes neatly.
3. To make beds.
4. To dress her own hair.
5. To wash dishes and sweep carpets.
6. To trim lamps.
7. To make good bread, and perform all plain cooking.
8. To keep her rooms, closets and drawers in order.
9. To work a sewing machine.
10. To make good butter and cheese.
11. To make a dress and other children's clothes.
12. To keep accounts and calculate interest.
13. To write, fold, and superscribe letters properly.
14. To nurse the sick efficiently, and not faint at the sight of a drop of blood.
15. To be ready to render efficient aid and comfort to those in trouble, in an unostentatious way.
16. To receive and entertain visitors when her mother is sick or absent.

A young lady who can do all these things well, and who is always ready to render aid to the afflicted, and to mitigate the perplexities of those about her will bring more comfort to others and happiness to herself, and be more esteemed, than if she only knew how to dance, simper, sing and play on the piano.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc, speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti Cholera Mixture for the cure of diarrhœa and dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhœa and dysentery.

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight months as incurable, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti Cholera Mixture He got well directly and has now entered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhœa and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar items from these letters Why does not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition at one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was sent for. The doctors considered his case an hopeless case. She, however, gave him Strickland's Anti Cholera Mixture, and in three weeks he was able to return home with his wife to New Richmond, O. All these cases right at home speak for themselves. We hope all the soldiers will put a bottle of it in their knapsacks. It may save them or some of their comrades. It is for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

The New York Tribune says, "The reason why Drake's Plantation Bitters are so universally used and have such an immense sale, is that they are always made up to the original standard, of highly invigorating material and of pure quality, although the prices have so largely advanced," &c.

The Tribune just hits the nail on the head. The Plantation Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what it is. The Recipe is published around each bottle, and the bottles are not reduced in size. At least twenty imitations and counterfeits have sprung up They impose upon the people once and that's the last of them.

The Plantation Bitters are now used in all the Government Hospitals, are recommended by the best physicians, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. Facts are stubborn things.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass, Nov. 24, 1863.

DEAR SIR:—I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicine failed to relieve me. Some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine glassfull after dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters Respectfully,
JUDITH RUSSELL.

If the ladies of America but knew what thousands of them are constantly relating to us, we candidly believe one half of the weakness, prostration and distress experienced by them would vanish James Marsh, Esq, of 164 West 14th St, N. Y, says, "he has three children, the first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them, but that she has taken Plantation Bitters for the last two years, and has a child now eighteen months old which she has nursed and reared herself, and both are hearty, saucy and well. The article is invaluable to mothers," &c.

Such evidence might be continued for a volume The best evidence is to try them. They speak for themselves. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, diabetes, &c., will find speedy relief through these Bitters.

They are now sold by all respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe. Be sure each bottle has our private United States Stamp over the top, and take none other. We do not sell it in any other way. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon is an imposter, and should be immediately reported to us Beware of refilled bottles; examine and see that the stamp has not been mutilated.

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Phillips and Lincoln.

Henry Ward Beecher, at the close of his Sabbath exercises, in drawing the portraits of the two Presidential candidates, thus contrasts Phillips and Lincoln:

"I have read with considerable attention the speech made by Mr. Phillips, at the Cooper Institute, a few evenings since. The criticisms which he made upon Mr. Lincoln do not demand at my hands any minute dissection. I have only to say that Mr. Phillips and Mr. Lincoln are counterparts, and need each other. Mr. Phillips avowedly is a reformer, and therefore is an agitator. Mr. Lincoln is by nature and practice an administrator and an organizer. It is impossible but that these two men should in some respects stand in critical antagonism of each other. And Mr. Phillips goes before to prepare the way. He raises higher and higher at every step the great moral standards; and he finds fault with the Administration that he may bring it higher and higher. I am glad he made that speech. I regard him as I do anchors in Western rivers. When the steamer runs upon a shallow place, they set jacks under her quarters, and take an anchor and carry it far down the stream, and couple it to the capstan, and then haul the boat up to the anchor.

Mr. Phillips is another; and he is far ahead of any possible Administration at present; but he hopes by turning the capstan to bring the Administration up to his ground by-and-by. You know that God left the Hittites and the Jebusites and the Amorites in the mountains as thorns to make the children of Israel faithful to their worship; and God leaves in our Canaan some thorns to spur men up to their duty. And I am glad Mr. Phillips criticised Mr. Lincoln. Let him criticise him again. Mr. Lincoln can bear it. It will not hurt him. Neither will it hurt Mr. Phillips. I do not think that any speech that he can make will injure his reputation. The ablest speaker on the continent; a man of the profoundest moral convictions; a man that has been true to his ideas at the expense of his ambition; a man who had the prospect of rising to the highest honors that a nation could give, but who, because he loves justice more than honors, stood in a minority, hissed, hated, mobbed, that he might be a witness of liberty, a John Baptist in the wilderness, clothed with camel's hair, eating locusts and wild honey, and preaching repentance to a guilty nation—such is he, and because he has adhered to his convictions of liberty to the uttermost, and with constant testimony he is without comeliness in the eyes of the people, and is made of no reputation. And I honor him, and admire him, and love him. I do not always follow him; for I, too, am free, and have a judgment that I must exercise. But I do believe that Mr. Philips, while he may seem severe in his criticisms on Mr. Lincoln, is severe only that he may be kind to patriotism, to country. And I think that Mr. Lincoln will do well to take heed to his criticisms, and to accept such men as he is: not blindly to follow them—not to take everything that they say as gospel; but as the natural quickeners of men like himself. For these extreme men—those men that are administrators and organizers, and that go only as fast as they can take the people with them, and those men that are reformers and agitators, and that always go ahead of the people—are the natural counterparts and helps of each other."

What Early's Soldiers Say.

REBEL LETTERS CAPTURED AT CEDAR CREEK.

A correspondent of the Boston Traveller gives the following extracts from rebel letters captured at the battle of Cedar Creek by Sheridan's troops. Some of these letters were written the day before the great battle, but the rebels had no time to send them away:

A rebel major says:

"We have been getting thrashed in the Valley considerably lately; it reminds me of our old times in Mississppi. I think I stand it better than the rest, as being more used to it.

"We have plucked up courage again, however, and old Jubal intends, I believe, to attack them to-morrow at daybreak.

"I am only fearful of the result, for they outnumber us considerably, and are flushed with success, besides being fortified.

A rebel chaplain, reviewing the campaign in the Valley up to that time says:

"Our losses in men have been comparatively small, but we have about thirty-six cannon less than we entered the campaign with, and about forty wagons less. We are just on the point of trying a flank movement on the Yankees, which will either retrieve the fallen glory of the army of the Valley, or blot it out forever. God grant that the latter may not happen, but I must confess that I shall mount my horse this evening with many forebodings of success.

"It seems to me that in his despair, Early is about to hurl his army (already more than 'shaky') against a much larger force of the enemy (and they flushed with victory) to make a name or lose his army.

"The people of the Valley are much incensed against Early, their constant answer, when asked the news, is: "O nothing, except that old Early has been trading cannons to the Yankees for whiskey." It is true that the General does drink sometimes, but I have never seen him under the influence of liquor, and I have never seen any one who was willing to say that he had ever seen him in that condition."

The following extract from a letter of a private soldier to his mother, exhibits a similar feeling of distrust:

"I judge that we move to attack the enemy in the morning at daylight. From the disparity of numbers in the two armies, and from the fact that the enemy occupy a strong and entrenched position, I think the result will be most disastrous to us. We have seen enough of the superiority of the enemy's cavalry to know that they can turn a repulse into defeat, and a defeat into a rout.

"I have no confidence in our leaders, and since the Fisher's Hill affair almost as little in our men. I can not see the reason we should risk another offensive battle with such fearful odds. I go into this battle with the worst forebodings. God grant they may not come true. If we succeed it will be almost miraculous. For myself I shall go into it perfectly content, willing to be ignorant of the result and certain it will be all for the best."

Mr. Verner, the proprietor of the Zoological Gardens at Stuttgardt, was lately seized by one of his lions, and bitten and dragged about the cage. The lion, getting alarmed by the voice of his master, at length let go his hold. Mr. Verner, although bleeding profusely from the wounds he had received, immediately inflicted severe chastisement on the unruly beast.

Only Tight.—"How flushed, how weak he is! What is the matter with him?"

"Only tight!"

"Tight?"

"Yes, intoxicated."

"Only tight!" Man's best and greatest gift, his intellect, degraded—the only power that raises him above the brute creation, trodden under foot of a debasing appetite.

"Only tight!" The mother stands with pale and tear-dimmed eye to see her only son's disgrace, and in her fancy pictures the bitter woes of which this is the foreshawdowing.

"Only tight!" The gentle sister, whose strongest love through life, has been given to her handsome, talented brother, shrinks with disgust and contempt from his embraces, and brushes away the hot impure kiss he printed upon her cheek.

"Only tight!" And his young bride steps to meet him and checks the welcome on her lips, to gaze in terror on the reeling form and flushed face of him who was the "god of her idolatry."

"Only tight!" And the father's face grows dark and sad, as, with a bitter sigh, he stoops over the sleeping face of his first born.

He has wrought sorrow to all their affectionate hearts; he has opened the door to a fatal indulgence; he has brought himself down to a level with the brutes; he has tasted, exciting the appetite to crave the poisonous draught again; he has fallen from noble manhood to idiocy; brought grief to his mother, distrust to his sister, shame to his wife, disgrace to his brother and bowed his father's head in sorrow; but blame him not; for he is "only tight."

It is stated that the large numbers of captures of blockade runners off Wilmington, is owing to a new method which has been inaugurated by the new commander of the North Atlantic blockading squadron, which thus far seems to work well. What the method is Admiral Porter keeps to himself; but the plan has the desired effect.

A Hog escaped from his owner at Pittsfield, Mass., in June, and has since been running wild, and lives in a swamp, and digs potatoes and kills sheep for a living. He has killed four sheep in a single day, and five dollars is offered for his capture.

The importance of a comma was well illustrated by a return received by the parish authorities of a Christian District, from their Chief Constable. The document announced the dismissal of a police officer, "for attempting to marry his wife, being alive."

THE CANADIAN CONFEDERATION.

The London Times' Report of the Object and Aims of the Movement—Annexation to the Union to be prevented at All Hazards,

[Correspondence of the London Times.]

QUEBEC, Oct. 2.

The inveterate jealousy of England entertained in the Northern States of America, the progress and probable results of the civil war, together with the insolent threats of American statesmen and journalists that the conquest or annexation of Canada will soon be attempted, in retaliation for real or supposed injuries on the part of Great Britain, or simply as a counterpoise for the loss of the Southern States, have naturally excited the attention, if not the alarm, of the Canadians. It is not the first time that they have asked themselves the question whether they were thoroughly loyal to the British crown, or whether, all things considered, it would be to their advantage either to declare their independence or seek peaceable incorporation with the great republic on their border; but it is the first time they have answered it with emphatic unanimity, and that all classes have come to the conclusion that their liberty, prosperity and happiness will be best secured by the continuance of their connection with Great Britain; that if this connection should unfortunately be severed, their duty would be to establish their independence in union, if possible, with Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward's Island and Newfoundland; and that under no circumstances short of absolute subjugation, they would consent to incorporation with the Federal Republic.

During a journey of upwards of twelve hundred miles through the towns and cities of Upper and Lower Canada I have made it my business to converse on this subject with all descriptions of people. I have interchanged ideas with farmers and mechanics, with clerks and shopkeepers, with hack drivers and boatmen, with merchants, lawyers and physicians; with members of the Legislature of every party; with actual or former members of the Government; with French Canadians, and with Canadians of Anglo-Saxon or Irish descent, and with new comers of all classes. In all this intercourse I did not meet with one person, however prejudiced or ignorant he might be on other matters, who did not estimate the British connection at its full value, and express repugnance at the idea of annexation to the Federal States. There was a time not very remote when a different feeling prevailed in Upper Canada; but the teachers of the American civil war have wrought a change, and produced throughout that province an attachment to the old flag which may be equalled but cannot be excelled in England or Scotland. In the Lower Province the loyalty to Great Britain is not so fervent; but if the French fall short of the Anglo-Canadians in this respect, they entertain towards the "Yankees"—or, as they sometimes call them, the "Bostonais"— a far greater aversion than is felt or expressed by any portion of the English-speaking population. If they love England little, they hate Federal America much, and are fully aware of and resolved to preserve the benefits of British protection.

The people of the mother country will be better enabled to understand the genuineness of the loyalty of these noble provinces, and how the diverse interests of the several races who inhabit them all converge into this one sentiment, if they will call to mind the leading incidents of Canadian history, and separate into its constituent parts the actual body of the population. For this purpose it will not be so satisfactory to divide the Canadians into persons of French, English, Scottish, Irish and German descent, as into the great social and political sections: First, of French Canadians; second, of united empire, loyalists and British Canadians; and third, of recent emigrants and their descendants. Every Canadian falls under one or the other of these divisions, and it should appear that for solid reasons of their own, independently of those entertained by others, each of these elementary parts of Canadian nationality clings to the British crown as the surest guaranty of its liberty and advancement, it may be accepted as a fact that Canadian loyalty is not a thing of light account, and that federal America would enter upon a very dangerous career if it attacked such a people, supported as they would be, in case of emergency, by the purse and strength of the British empire.

The loyalty of the Canadians being conceded, the British government and people have a right to ask how it is that in this time of peril to the American continent, when the Federal States swarm with soldiers that are to be counted by the hundred thousand, and when there is at least a possibility that Great Britain may be dragged into a quarrel with the Federal Government, the Canadians have done so little for their own defense, and why they have not at this moment, including volunteers and militia, an available force of 80,000 or 100,000 men? The little State of Maine, their next door neighbor, has furnished upwards of 40,000 soldiers to the armies of Mr. Lincoln, and Canada, with a population five times that of Maine, and with a militia force amounting on paper to upwards of 456,000 able-bodied men, finds it difficult to raise 20,000 volunteers, and takes no effectual steps to call out even a tithe, of its militia, or to make that body a reality instead of a sham. What are the reasons of this apathy? Is it that Canada has been so long accustomed to rely upon the military and naval strength of Great Britian that she has not acquired the art of walking without crutches? Does she imagine that it is always to be her happy lot to be supported by the power of the greatest nation in the world, without taking any share of the burden of self-defense either in men or in money? An indignant denial is always given by the Canadians to these questions. They assert that in the hour of danger they have never been found wanting in their duty or slack in their exertions; that in the war of 1812 they did noble service against the "Yankees;" that in the affair of the Trent they felt keenly the insult to the British flag that they would have accepted all the consequences of a war with America for the vindication of British honor, and would have raised a quarter of a million of men, or double the number, if necessary, to repel any invasion that in such a war the Americans would have hurled either against the Upper or the Lower Province. They also insist that if war against Great Britian were to arise out of the present struggle between North and South, there would be a levee en masse of whole population to act in concert with any British force that might be sent to direct the defenses of the colony.

These assertions are doubtless true. No one can be many days among the Canadians without feeling that they are a brave people, with as much fight in them as the Americans, either of the North or the South, and that in the hour of conflict they would do their whole duty to their old and their new country without flinching, and without the inducement of bribe or bounty money, or any other than pure love of the cause. But the mistake which the Canadians have made, and in which they still appear to be nursing themselves, is that war is improbable and that the Americans are likely to have too much work on their hands in cutting each other's throats, during the next dozen or twenty years, to have either men or time to spare for the wicked invasion of a colony that has done them no injury, and that sincerely desires to be at peace with them and with all mankind. They do not take into account that the Americans are not a reasonable people toward great Britain, that they believe the "old country" to be effete and decrepid, and so rapidly tottering to its fall as to need only a blow from America to leave the throne of the world vacant without any competitor but the United States to step into the sovereignty of civilization, and dictate the policy of Christendom.

"Why," they argue, "should we raise and maintain a large force to guard against an imaginary danger? We are a sparsely distributed and poor people. We have an immense line of frontier, which it would be impossible for us to garrison at all points, so as to defeat and hold an audacious enemy, if he suddenly attacked us. Besides the raising of such a force, if we were able to afford the cost, either in men or money, would be a standing menace to a quarrelsome neighbor, and challenge the aggression which we would rather avoid. Moreover, the very example of the Americans, shows us what we could do if our blood were up. They had but a small army when the civil war commenced. Now they have a very large one. We also, under the pressure of danger, and stirred by the feelings of patriotism, would sing the tocsin and carry the fiery cross through our towns and villages if the Yankees attacked us, and in a few weeks got together an army of volunteers sufficient to cope with any amount of invaders that could be driven against us. Nor would Great Britain abandon us in any such contest. Our fame is the fame of the mother country. Our security is the security of England. We are, to all intents and purposes, one people with the people at home, and if the imperial government were in such an emergency to forsake us, the sun of British glory would set forever, and England would descend, by her own act, into the rank of a third rate Power, inviting by her pusillanimity the aggression which she would have shown herself unable or unwilling to repel.

It is in this manner that Canadians, both in the Upper and Lower provinces are accustomed to speak, though it must be admitted that a change has lately come over the minds of their leading politicians, and that a feeling of misgiving has been engendered among all classes as to the worldly wisdom of such views. They are venerable and not to be disputed axioms, which declare that Heaven helps those who help themselves, and that the best way to preserve peace is to be strong enough to compel your enemy to keep it, and the events of the last few years on the American side of the St. Lawrence are fast teaching the Canadians the impolicy of remaining quiescent and apathetic while the shock of war is sounding so close upon their borders, and while an unscrupulous and greedy people openly assert that sooner or later, they will extend their frontiers to the North Pole, and expel every vestige of a European government from the American continent. What the Canadians have done and propose to do under the impulse of this growing sentiment, and how far they are ready to yield to the not unnatural demand of the British government that they should show their faith by their works, and their loyalty of spirit by their chivalry of action must be reserved for a future communication.

What Young People Should Know.—The best inheritance that parents can give their children, is the ability to help and take care of themselves. This is better than a hundred thousand dollars apiece. In any trouble or difficulty, they will have two excellent servants ready, in the shape of two hands. Those who can do nothing and have to be waited on, are helpless and easily disheartened at the misfortunes of life. Those who are active and hardy, meet troubles with cheerful face and easily surmount them. Let young people, therefore, learn to do as many useful things as possible.

Every one should know how, sooner or later,

1. To dress himself, black his own boots, cut his brother's hair, wind his watch, sew on a button, make a bed, and keep the clothes in order.
2. To harness a horse, grease a wagon, and drive a team.
3. To carve and wait on a table.
4. To milk the cows, shear the sheep, and dress a veal or mutton.
5. To reckon money and keep accounts correctly, and according to good bookkeeping rules.
6. To write a neat, appropriate, briefly expressed business letter, in a good hand, fold and subscribe it properly, and write contracts.
7. To plow, sow grain and grass, drive a mowing machine, build a neat stack, and pitch hay.
8. To put up a package, build a fire, whitewash a wall, mend broken tools, and regulate a clock:

Every girl should know how:

1. To sew and knit.
2. To mend clothes neatly.
3. To make beds.
4. To dress her own hair.
5. To wash dishes and sweep carpets.
6. To trim lamps.
7. To make good bread, and perform all plain cooking.
8. To keep her rooms, closets and drawers in order.
9. To work a sewing machine.
10. To make good butter and cheese.
11. To make a dress and other children's clothes.
12. To keep accounts and calculate interest.
13. To write, fold, and superscribe letters properly.
14. To nurse the sick efficiently, and not faint at the sight of a drop of blood.
15. To be ready to render efficient aid and comfort to those in trouble, in an unostentatious way.
19. To receive and entertain visitors when her mother is sick or absent.

A young lady who can do all these things well, and who is always ready to render aid to the afflicted, and to mitigate the perplexities of those about her will bring more comfort to others and happiness to herself, and be more esteemed, than if she only knew how to dance, simper, sing and play on the piano.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture for the cure of diarrhœa and dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhœa and dysentery.

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight months as incurable, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. He got well directly and has now entered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhœa and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar items from these letters. Why does not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition at one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was sent for. The doctors considered his case an hopeless case. She, however, gave him Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture, and in three weeks he was able to return home with his wife to New Richmond, O. All these cases right at home speak for themselves. We hope all the soldiers will put a bottle of it in their knapsacks. It may save them or some of their comrades. It is for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

The New York Tribune says, "The reason why Drake's Plantation Bitters are so universally used and have such an immense sale, is that they are always made up to the original standard, of highly invigorating material and of pure quality, although the prices have so largely advanced," &c.

The Tribune just hits the nail on the head. The Plantation Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what it is. The Recipe is published around each bottle, and the bottles are not reduced in size. At least twenty imitations and counterfeits have sprung up. They impose upon the people once and that's the last of them.

The Plantation Bitters are now used in all the Government Hospitals, are recommended by the best physicians, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. Facts are stubborn things.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863.

DEAR SIR:—I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicine failed to relieve me. Some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine-glassful after dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters. Respectfully,
JUDITH RUSSELL.

If the ladies of American but knew what thousands of them are constantly relating to us, we candidly believe one half of the weakness, prostration and distress experienced by them would vanish. James Marsh, Esq., of 159 West 14th St., N. Y., says, "he has three children, the first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them, but that she has taken Plantation Bitters for the last two years, and has a child now eighteen months old which she has nursed and reared herself, and both are hearty, saucy and well. The article is invaluable to mothers," &c.

Such evidence might be continued for a volume The best evidence is to try them. They speak for themselves. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, diabetes, &c., will find speedy relief through these Bitters.

They are now sold by all respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe. Be sure each bottle has our private United States Stamp over the top, and take none other. We do not sell it in any other way. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon is an impostor, and should be immediately reported to us. Beware of refilled bottles; examine and see that the stamp has not been mutilated.

Persons unacquainted with the Melodeon and its history, will bear in mind that we are the pioneers and leading manufacturers, not only in the United States, but in the world. We commenced the manufacture of Melodeons in the fall of the year 1847, and since that time have finished and sold

THIRTY THOUSAND!

These instruments are now in use mostly in the United States and Canada, also in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, and the West Indies, and from all these quarters we have the most flattering testimonials of the high estimation in which they are held. At all Industrial Exhibitions, they have invariably been whenever exhibiting in competition with others. We shall take pleasure in forwarding by mail (at our own expense) our Illustrated Catalogue, in which every instrument we manufacture, is fully described and illustrated by elegant engravings.

AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUM!

☞ All Melodeons of our manufacture, either sold by us or dealers in any part of the United States or Canada, are warranted to be perfect in every respect, and should any repairs be necessary before the expiration of five years from the date of sale, we hold ourselves ready and willing to make the same free of charge, provided the injury is not caused by accident or design.

CAUTION.

We daily see advertisements of some new reed instrument, with strange name, purporting to be superior to Melodeons and School Organs. A new exterior and a new name will naturally attract attention; but the public will bear in mind that all Reed Instruments, now manufactured in the United States and Canada, are, as near as they can be made without infringing our patents, copies of our own.

☞ Agents for the sale of our Melodeons can be found in all the principal towns of the United States and Canadas. Address either

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The base is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystalline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Janesville Daily Gazette.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1864.

National and State Thanksgiving.

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

It has pleased Almighty God to prolong our National life another year, defending us with His guardian care against unfriendly designs from abroad, and vouchsafed to us in His mercy many and signal victories over the enemy who is of our own household. It has also pleased our Heavenly Father to favor as well our citizens in their homes as our soldiers in their camps and our sailors on the seas, with unusual health. He has largely augmented our free population by emancipation and by immigration, while He has opened to us new sources of wealth, and has crowned the labor of our working men in every department of industry with abundant reward. Moreover he has been pleased to animate and inspire our minds and hearts with fortitude, courage, and resolution sufficient for the great trial of civil war into which we have been brought by our adherence as a nation to the cause of freedom and humanity, and to afford to us reasonable hopes of an ultimate and happy deliverance from all our dangers and afflictions.

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart the last Thursday in November next, as a day which I desire to be observed by all my fellow citizens, wherever they may then be, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God, the beneficent Creator and Ruler of the universe; and I do further recommend to my fellow-citizens aforesaid, that on that occasion they do reverently humble themselves in the dust, and from thence offer up penitent and fervent prayers and supplications to the Great Disposer of events for a return of the inestimable blessings of peace, union and harmony throughout the land which it has pleased Him to assign as a dwelling place for ourselves and our posterity throughout all generations.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 20th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1864, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.

By the President: ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

By the Governor of the State of Wisconsin.

A PROCLAMATION.

Another year has passed; its trials, its victories, its rewards, its punishments, its blessings have been recorded; its fruits have been gathered in.—In reviewing them, how manifest are the reasons for thankfulness and praise to God for his wonderful goodness to the children of men. For the many tokens of Divine favor, the many blessings they have been permitted to enjoy, the people of Wisconsin have great reason to be thankful. Pestilence and famine have been kept far from us. The labors of the miner, the mariner, the mechanic and the husbandman have been rewarded. The privileges of education and of worshipping God according to the dictates of conscience have been enjoyed by all.

The honor and loyalty of Wisconsin have been most nobly vindicated by her sons on many a battle-field. Wherever our liberties have been assailed, an All-wise Creator has given us stout hearts and strong arms to defend them.

The free institutions established by our fathers have been protected and preserved, and a wicked and unholy rebellion brought near to its close.

While the people of our sister States have suffered from the devastations caused by hostile armies in their midst, our people have been spared this calamity. For all these and numerous other blessings, which God in His goodness has vouchsafed to us; for His loving kindness, His constant care and abundant mercies, we should with grateful hearts thank and praise him.

Therefore, I, James T. Lewis, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, in accordance with a worthy and time honored custom, do hereby designate and appoint Thursday, the 24th day of November, 1864, as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to Almighty God, and I would recommend to the people that, laying aside secular pursuits, they meet on that day in their accustomed places of worship, and offer thanks to God for the many blessings we have been permitted to enjoy during the past year, and with their thanks let the earnest, fervent prayer ascend for the protection of the widow and the orphan, the noble soldier and his suffering family, that we may all grow wiser and better, that all our blessings may be continued, and that peace may soon again visit and bless our land.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the great seal of the State [L. S.] of Wisconsin to be affixed.—Done at Madison, this 22d day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

By the Governor, JAMES T. LEWIS.
LUCIUS FAIRCHILD, Secretary of State.

over the old prices, though furniture has everywhere else advanced at least from 25 to 75 cents over the old rates, and as it may be believed that he, too, asks more for furniture than he did before, he will disprove this to every one who will call and examine his stock, as he is sure to give entire satisfaction to the most fastidious, both in regard to price, quality and beauty of style, which can not be surpassed here or elsewhere.

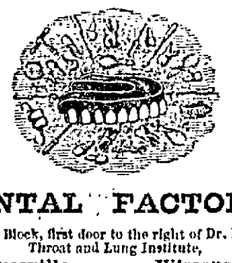

Among my numerous articles I can only mention Sofas, Tete-a-Tetes, Sofa, Mahogany, Flag, Cane and Wooden Seat Chairs, Lounges, Marble Top, Center Card, Extension, Dining, Breakfast and Kitchen Tables Mahogany, Cherry and Black Walnut Bureaus of all kinds, Bedsteads of every description, Coffins of all sizes and trimmed in every variety of style constantly on hand.

Sewing Machines.

WILCOX & GIBBS'

SEWING MACHINE!

Will Stitch, Hem, Fell, Tuck, Cord, Bind, Braid, Quilt and Embroider beautifully. It will, with the finest needle and thread, run from perfect work on the finest Nainsook, over the heaviest beaver cloth and cowhide, with no change of needle, thread or tension.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

will use coarse cotton, linen, silk and twine. It runs easier, faster and stiller than any other machine. It forms a flat, even and elastic seam, differing from every other stitch, each loop being twisted by means of the

and drawing the twist into the goods, thus securely fastening every stitch, so that the seam will bear to be cut at frequent intervals, and in that case even, the seam is warranted not to rip in wear, and under all circumstances to "survive the washtub." Old worn out family garments, bosoms, pants, dresses, &c., have been submitted to Committees at Fairs where was the greatest competition, and to this stitch premiums have been awarded for its SUPERIORITY, DURABILITY, ELASTICITY and BEAUTY.

A Patented Device prevents the possibility of the machine being run in the wrong direction, or the balance wheel ever wearing or touching the dress. By another ingenious Patent improvement,

The Needle Cannot be Set Wrong;

Thus avoiding the great trouble of other machines. In this it is so easy that a child may set it in the dark with unerring correctness every time.

NO BREAKING OF NEEDLES.

The blade of the needle is less than ¾ of an inch long, and is straight. It is less than half the length of other sewing needles, many of which are curved, therefore more easily bent or broken—a great source of annoyance, expense and trouble. The Hemmer and Feller can never be set wrong. Any one may adjust them in the dark. The hem may be of any width. No other hemmer or feller is like this. It turns the hem on the right or upper side, as you want it.

IT WILL NOT DROP STITCHES;

As the needle is always set right, the blade short and straight does not vibrate, like longer ones.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

is run by steam at 1000 stitches per minute—other machines only at 400 to 1200, with safety. They are manufactured with

MATHEMATICAL PRECISION,

hence each part is interchangeable, and can be readily placed in case of accident.

THEY WILL NOT GET OUT OF ORDER

We have known it intimately for several years. Many thousands are already in use here, and so far as we know, not one in family use has ever cost a dime to repair, or ever been out of order at all. They will last a generation, if properly cared for. None who have used it can be persuaded to use any other.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

Works at an instant's notice, and never stops "unaccountably." Not one operator in ten on the Wilcox & Gibbs will break a needle or drop a stitch in a year. The Wilcox & Gibbs in the hands of any one, knows no "skips," "drops," "jumps" or "mises." The roundness, evenness, durability and beauty of its stitch

WERE NEVER EQUALED.

Its rapidity, absolute stillness, ease of motion, narrowness and neatness of its Hem and Fell were never approached by any other machine. We can call in any boy or girl from the street, and with three minutes instruction they will set the needle, attach the Hemmer, or Feller, and do the work with entire success. A blind girl, with the exception of threading the needle, can do the same. Many ladies owning other first-class machines, come to our office to do their fine hemming and felling on the Wilcox & Gibbs Machine.

The press universally pronounce this the best family sewing machine in the world.

We are General Agents for

BARNUM'S SELF-SEWER,

FOR ALL SEWING MACHINES.

It guides the work itself, thus avoiding the bent posture and strain on the eyes. Price $1 50. Large discount to Agents.

Editors who desire one of these machines on half advertising contracts, can insert this advertisement, send us their paper, and get a machine at any time.

We take other machines in exchange. We sell Oil, Cotton, Silk, Twist and Needles for every kind of sewing machine.

We attend to the repairing of all kinds of machines.

Price of Machines, with hemmer, feller, gauge, oil can, extra needles, full directions, &c., from $50 to $175.

Janesville Daily Gazette.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1864.

National and State Thanksgiving.

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

It has pleased Almighty God to prolong our National life another year, defending us with His guardian care against unfriendly designs from abroad, and vouchsafed to us in His mercy many and signal victories over the enemy who is of our own household. It has also pleased our Heavenly Father to favor us with all our citizens in their homes as our soldiers in their camps and our sailors on the seas, with unusual health. He has largely augmented our free population by emancipation and by immigration, while He has opened to us new sources of wealth, and has crowned the labor of our working men in every department of industry with abundant reward. Moreover he has been pleased to animate and inspire our minds and hearts with fortitude, courage, and resolution sufficient for the great trial of civil war into which we have been brought by our adherence as a nation to the cause of freedom and humanity, and to afford to us reasonable hopes of an ultimate and happy deliverance from all our dangers and afflictions.

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart the last Thursday in November next, as a day which I desire to be observed by all my fellow citizens, wherever they may then be, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God, the beneficent Creator and Ruler of the universe; and I do further recommend to my fellow-citizens aforesaid, that on that occasion they do reverently humble themselves in the dust, and from thence offer up penitent and fervent prayers and supplications to the Great Disposer of events for a return of the inestimable blessings of peace, union and harmony throughout the land which it has pleased Him to assign as a dwelling place for ourselves and our posterity throughout all generations.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 20th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1864, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.

By the President: ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

By the Governor of the State of Wisconsin.

A PROCLAMATION.

Another year has passed; its trials, its victories, its rewards, its punishments, its blessings have been recorded; its fruits have been gathered in—in reviewing them, how manifest are the lessons of thankfulness and praise to God for his wonderful goodness to the children of men. For the many tokens of Divine favor, the many blessings they have been permitted to enjoy, the people of Wisconsin have great reason to be thankful. Pestilence and famine have been kept far from us. The labors of the miner, the mariner, the mechanic and the husbandman have been rewarded. The privileges of education and of worshipping God according to the dictates of conscience have been enjoyed by all.

The honor and loyalty of Wisconsin have been most nobly vindicated by her sons on many a battle-field. Wherever our liberties have been assailed, an All-wise Creator has given us stout hearts and strong arms to defend them.

The free institutions established by our fathers have been protected and preserved, and a wicked and unholy rebellion brought near to its close.

While the people of our sister States have suffered from the devastations caused by hostile armies in their midst, our people have been spared this calamity. For all these and numerous other blessings, which God in His goodness has vouchsafed to us; for His loving kindness, His constant care and abundant mercies, we should with grateful hearts thank and praise him.

Therefore, I, James T. Lewis, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, in accordance with a worthy and time honored custom, do hereby designate and appoint Thursday, the 24th day of November, 1864, as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to Almighty God, and I would recommend to the people that, laying aside secular pursuits, they meet on that day in their accustomed places of worship, and offer thanks to God for the many blessings we have been permitted to enjoy during the past year, and with their thanks let the earnest, fervent prayer ascend for the protection of the widow and the orphan, the noble soldier and his suffering family, that we may all grow wiser and better, that all our blessings may be continued, and that peace may soon again visit and bless our land.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the great seal of the State [L. S.] of Wisconsin to be affixed.—Done at Madison, this 22d day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

By the Governor, JAMES T. LEWIS.
LUCIUS FAIRCHILD, Secretary of State.

Without any Advance in Price

over the old prices, though furniture has everywhere else advanced at least from 25 to 75 cents over the old rates, and as it may be believed that he, too, asks more for furniture than he did before, he will disprove this to every one who will call and examine his stock, as he is sure to give entire satisfaction to the most fastidious, both in regard to price, quality and beauty of style, which can not be surpassed here or elsewhere.

Among my numerous articles I can only mention Sofas, Tete-a-Tetes, Sofa, Mahogany, Flag, Cane and Wooden Seat Chairs, Lounges, Marble Top, Center, Card, Extension, Dining, Breakfast and Kitchen Tables, Mahogany, Cherry and Black Walnut Bureaus of all kinds, Bedsteads of every description, Coffins of all sizes and trimmed in every variety of style constantly on hand.

They are set on condensed vulcanite plates which finish up in a very superior style, susceptible of the highest polish and twice as strong as the common rubber plates; and are made with invisible air chambers which adhere with such tenacity that 15 or 20 pounds weight will not detach them; yet they sit perfectly easy in the mouth.

Sewing Machines.

WILCOX & GIBBS'

SEWING MACHINE!

Will Stitch, Hem, Fell, Tuck, Cord, Bind, Braid, Quilt and Embroider beautifully. It will, with the finest needle and thread, run from perfect work on the finest Nainsook, over the heaviest beaver cloth and cowhide, with no change of needle, thread or tension.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

will use coarse cotton, linen, silk and twine. It runs easier, faster and stiller than any other machine. It forms a flat, even and elastic seam, differing from every other stitch, each loop being twisted by means of the

and drawing the twist into the goods, thus securely fastening every stitch, so that the seam will bear to be cut at frequent intervals, and in that case even, the seam is warranted not to rip in wear, and under all circumstances to "survive the wash-tub." Old worn out family garments, bosoms, pants, dresses, &c., have been submitted to Committees at Fairs where was the greatest competition, and to THIS STITCH premiums have been awarded for its SUPERIORITY, DURABILITY, ELASTICITY and BEAUTY.

A Patented Device prevents the possibility of the machine being run in the wrong direction, or the balance wheel ever wearing or touching the dress. By another ingenious Patent improvement,

The Needle Cannot be Set Wrong;

Thus avoiding the great trouble of other machines. In this it is so easy that a child may set it in the dark with unerring correctness every time.

NO BREAKING OF NEEDLES.

The blade of the needle is less than ¾ of an inch long, and is straight. It is less than half the length of other machine needles, many of which are curved, therefore more easily bent or broken—a great source of annoyance, expense and trouble. The Hemmer and Feller can never be set wrong. And any one may adjust them in the dark. The hem may be of any width. No other hemmer or feller is like this. It turns the hem on the right or upper side, as you want it.

IT WILL NOT DROP STITCHES:

As the needle is always set right, the blade short and straight, does not vibrate, like longer ones.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

is run by about 400 stitches per minute—other machines only at 400 to 1,200, with safety. They are manufactured with

MATHEMATICAL PRECISION,

Hence each part is interchangeable, and can be readily placed in case of accident.

THEY WILL NOT GET OUT OF ORDER

We have known it intimately for several years. Many thousands are already in use here, and so far as we know, not one in family use has ever cost a dime to repair, or ever been out of order at all. They will last a generation, if properly cared for. None who have used them can be persuaded to use any other.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

Works at an instant's notice, and never stops "unaccountably." Not one operator in ten on the Wilcox & Gibbs "ill-break" a needle or drop a stitch in a year. The Wilcox & Gibbs in the hands of any one, knows no "skips," "drops," "jumps" or "misses." The soundness, evenness, durability and beauty of its stitch

WERE NEVER EQUALED.

Its rapidity, absolute stillness, ease of motion, narrowness and neatness of its Hem and Fell were never approached by any other machine. We can call in any boy or girl from the street, and with three minutes instruction they will set the needle, attach the Hemmer or Feller, and do the work with entire success. A blind girl, with the exception of threading the needle, can do the same. Many ladies owning other first-class machines, come to our office to do their fine hemming and felling on the Wilcox & Gibbs Machine.

The press universally pronounce this the best family sewing machine in the world.

We are General Agents for

BARNUM'S SELF-SEWER,

FOR ALL SEWING MACHINES.

It guides the work itself, thus avoiding the bent posture and strain on the eyes. Price $1 50. Large discount to Agents.

Editors who desire one of these machines for half advertising contracts, can insert this advertisement, send us their paper, and get a machine at any time.

We take other machines in exchange. We sell Oil, Cotton, Silk, Twist and Needles for every kind of sewing machine.

We attend to the repairing of all kinds of machines. Price of Machines, with hemmer, feller, gauge, oil can, extra needles, full directions, &c., from $55 to $175.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail

RED JACKET Stomach Bitters

THESE Bitters are prepared, in pure Bourbon Whisky, from a combination of over twenty different kinds of roots, barks and herbs, which act in perfect concert one with the other, prepared from the original formula given by the great chief, Red Jacket, to Dr. Chapin, who used them successfully in his practice for many years, and by their use gained so great a popularity in the treatment and cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sick and Nervous Headache, Fever and Ague, and all diseases arising from a ... liver or indigestion. Persons suffering from any of these loathsome diseases will find a sure cure by the use of these Bitters, which are perfectly pure and free from all those drugs and poisons usually put up in such preparations and palmed off on an unsuspecting public. A single trial will convince the most skeptical that in the RED JACKET there is virtue which no other Bitters possess.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

Beware of counterfeits. The Red Jacket Bitters are only sold in bottles with our name blown in the side, and our private government stamp across the cork. —OUR—

Patent Medicines.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES, KNOWN AS Helmbold's Genuine Preparation

"highly concentrated" compound

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

a positive and specific remedy for diseases of

The Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.

H

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.

Take no Balsam, Mercury or unpleasant medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

cures such in all their stages, at little expense; little or no change of diet; no inconvenience, and no exposure.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, and allaying inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the

Victims of Quacks,

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form.

E

Use Helmbold' Extract Buchu

for all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a Diuretic. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is

The Great Diuretic,

and it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

L

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

Helmbold's highly concentrated compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla Syphilis

This is an affection of the blood, and attacks the sexual organs, linings of the nose, ears, throat, windpipe, and other mucuous surfaces, making its appearance in the form of ulcers. Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

M

Helmbold's Rose Wash,

an excellent lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection in diseases of the urinary organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

Certificates of cures, from three to twenty years standing, with names known to science and fame.

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY AND CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.
Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail

RED JACKET

Stomach Bitters

These Bitters are prepared, in pure Bourbon Whisky, from a combination of over twenty different kinds of roots, barks and herbs, which act in perfect concert one with the other, prepared from the original formula given by the great chief, Red Jacket, to Dr. Chapin, who used them successfully in his practice for many years, and by their use gained so great a popularity in the treatment and cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sick and Nervous Headache, Fever and Ague, and all diseases arising from torpid liver or indigestion. Persons suffering from either of these loathsome diseases will find a sure cure by the use of these Bitters, which are perfectly pure and free from all those drugs and poisons usually put up in such preparations and palmed off on an unsuspecting public. A single trial will convince the most skeptical that in the RED JACKET there is virtue which no other Bitters possess.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.
Beware of counterfeits. The Red Jacket Bitters are only sold in bottles with our name blown on the side, and our private government stamp across the cork.

—OUR—

For Medicinal and Table uses, which are perfectly pure, and need only be tried to be appreciated. None genuine unless they have our gold label on each bottle, and our initials pressed in wax over the cork.
Sold by all druggists and dealers throughout the country. Call for our goods and take no other.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES, KNOWN AS

Helmbold's Genuine Preparation

"highly concentrated" compound

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

a positive and specific remedy for diseases of

The Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.

H

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous dispositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.
Take no Balsam, Mercury or unpleasant medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

cures such in all their stages, at little expense; little or no change of diet; no inconvenience, and no exposure.
It causes frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, and allaying inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases.
Thousands upon thousands who have been the

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form.

E

Use Helmbold' Extract Buchu

for all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a Diuretic. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is

Helmbold's highly concentrated compound

Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

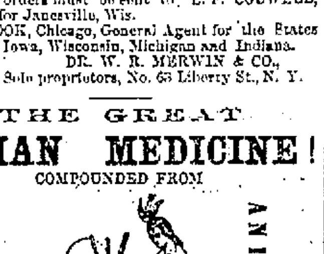

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.
It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.
It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.
CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.
By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.
Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.
